adj
JH

Dear Sir,

The death of my husband Perry Dixon, departed this life may 1917, since then I have not received any pension, which was the main support of our living.

I regret to intercede the matter but the cause there of resting upon very urgent purposes and my circumstances becomming more critical daily.

Thanking you in advance hoping you will take this matter into immediate consideration and relieve the widow.
