

lived in this city all my life; I had no physician prior to retirement. Since discharge I have worked as a clerk, a writer, a houseman and for the past few years a printer; I lived in Farney alley all my life until about 21 years ago, then moved to 1141 W. Saratoga St., where I lived for about 15 years, and for the past six years in my present residence. Dr. Henry Orrings, now dead, has been my only physician; my most intimate friends have been Joseph Curtin, Washington Orring, Cyrus Seiggs and Richard Herrick; Gen. G. R. Orrings, son of Dr. Henry Orrings, has been my physician for about four or five years.

My habits have been regular and temperate.

I can't give date of making my first application; it is about three years ago, though, I think; I went to Mr. W. Lloyd, of this city to make my application. I think I first went to this office as a witness in another case, and while there someone suggested to me that I ought
