

know their names; I think the young man has been there each time I have been there; I am pretty sure he saw me sign my name; I am not sure about the young lady being there each time; I don't remember whether any persons in Mr. Lloyd's office ever signed any papers with me or were ever seen with me. Those are all my signatures, I think.

I fully understand my rights and privileges.

I fully understand your questions and my answers are correctly recorded.

John B. Murphy

Deponent.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 15th day of June, 1894 and I certify that the contents were fully made known to deponent before signing.

Jose C. Connelley

Special Examiner.