

range of this mistake because she could neither read nor write. ~~From~~ this little mistake is made the pretext or found^{ation} to ~~disbar~~ this claimant from her pension to this date, notwithstanding her evidence by competent witnesses to sustain her claim under Sec 4705 of the Revised Statutes and her own sworn statement filed Augt 3/91 giving in addition the names of her 4 children by said soldier & dates of births of the same, and her needy & dependent circumstances all sustained by reputable evidence who have known her for upwards 28 years &c. and when she is now asking with extreme ^{anxiety} for the allowance of her claim she is told "better evidence is wanted of identity". Therefore to save further trouble and expense upon the claimant who is unable to sustain it, I hope enclosed evidence from a highly respectable merchant, may be deemed sufficient to complete or confirm the identity of the claimant as the person she represe^{claims}
 -nts herself to be and the ^{claim} settled at once very respectfully
