

DEPOSITION

Case of Jesse Fry Capt, No. 364780

On this 1st day of March, 1888, at County of

State of, before me,
Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared William
M. Fletcher, who, being first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says:

any one but himself say that he had.

I know nothing personally of his conduct since discharge.

Can't say that I ever knew of him hurting his wrist in the Army.

I have heard you read my former affidavit. And now I remember that I did see him with his left arm in a sling while we were at Fort Magruder about January 1864, but can't say whether he fell from a platform or how he hurt his wrist. He carried his wrists in a sling for a week or such a matter, and was excused from duty. I saw some men working on Fort Magruder, but cannot swear that Fry was one of them.

My answers are correctly in this deposition.

William A Fletcher
Deponent