

several during those two months probably four or five. The first was in the Harvest field, while we were burning wheat. He began to tremble and complained of pains in the head and fell on his face and was all drawn up, Arms and legs, and was foaming at the mouth. - I helped rub him with camphor. The spell lasted about half an hour. - The next spell he had I saw, was at his own house, I used to go to his house and cut wood for him as he was sick in bed. And I saw him have these other spells while he was in bed. He foamed at the mouth and was drawn up. Same as he was in the first spell. - Had possession of Ransall town that time. The spells came on sometimes in day sometimes at night - Can't say how often though.

Then after he moved to Mt Pleasant about ten miles from "Soulader light" I lived with him, one winter and while we were cutting wood, he was taken with another of those spells, took
