

DEPOSITION

Case of Jesse Fry (Innocent), No. 364,780

On the 13th day of February, 1888, at Baltimore, County of Harford, State of Maryland, before me, J. W. Brooks, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared James A. Smith, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: My age is 32 years Post office address 636 Bruce St Baltimore, Md. I have never met or visited or communicated I began acquainted with him at Rockdale, Balt Co, Md. while he was in the employ of Henry C.
Redgely, driving for him; I then worked for Mr Choate about six miles from where Clint lived. and saw him sometimes twice a week as he drove past my place. That was ~~two~~ or twelve years ago. I know nothing of his physical condition at that time.
But about five years ago I worked with and lived within half a mile of him, and saw him every day. That was at a place called "Doves Delight" We worked together there at cutting wood and thrashing for Henry Clay Redgely for about two months. His health was not good. Complained of pains in his side. Don't know which side. And spells - Fainting spells Had one within four weeks after I began working with him. He had
