

Page

32

His father's name was Amos Fry, he died of lock jaw some time ago, His parents were no relation to me another prior to their marriage.
 I never knew of Amos or any of our family ever having had fainting spells, feeling faint, dizziness, fits or rushing blood to the head while I lived in Johns place. Never knew or heard of his mother, father or any of the family ever having had fits or fainting spells.

I have seen him on an average of once in six months since he came home from the Army. And one summer about seventeen or eight-teen years when Clint was living with Henry Clay Ridgely. I lived in the same house with Clint about three months - but I never saw him have a fit. as I never happened there at the time, but his mother has told me at different times that he had them.

I have heard you read the affidavit which I made before, but I was not asked whether I personally saw him have fits. - I was asked if I knew that he had them, and I said "yes" because his mother used to tell me when I went to see

Attest
Henry A. Prid
J. M. Brooks

Elizabeth A. Bowley Deponent.

I read to and subscribed before me this 25th day of July 1888, and I certify that the contents were fully made known to deponent before signing.

Special Examiner.