On this 11th day of February, 188*8*, at Baltimore, County of Harford, State of Maryland, before me, J. P. Rogers, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared George Lewis, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of afore-

Post office address 109 Graham St. Balt. Md. Driver.

I am not related to claim-ant but have known him from my boyhood. I was formerly a slave and belong-ed to John Kinship John and to John Freely John and these places were about one mile apart. Fry was Freely John's slave. After the war was I used to go over there and worked with Aunt. The harvested together before the war, and before the war worked worked at ploughing and general farm work such as he could do and I saw him every day.
 And he (before the war) had first rate health. I don't know that I ever knew him to be sick at that time. He never had fits or fainting spells that I know of, and I never knew of it and remembered it if he had. I remember that one boy in the neighborhood by the name "Abe"
