

of June I saw him pretty often, and know that he suffered with the rupture which he had received. I am not able to state whether he was treated during the war for his injury. Since his return from the army I know that he has been very much disabled at times by his injury and that he has lost about half his time from manual or farm labor. I am enabled to make this statement as we have lived near each other. I am not interested in his claim.

The questions asked me were understood and my answers have been correctly recorded in this deposition.
