

Page 8 He came from the South somewhere.

I had seven children counting one that died as soon as it was born.

Nelson born, Mary, Caroline, Henrietta, Kate, and Sally born.

All are living except Nelson and the child unnamed which died at about the time of its birth.

I haven't the date of the birth of any of my children I had the date of the birth of all my children in a bible but it was stolen from me so I can't tell about them.

The record of my husband's death and my birth was in the bible that I lost.

I lost my bible when I was moving sometimes during the war after my husband died I have no letter from Nelson.

The child that died was next to Nelson.

I think Mary is about 32 years old she was born here in Hagerstown and there was two years between each of the other children.

My husband died in Hagerstown, Md. I can't tell exactly when but a year or so before the war broke out.

My son Nelson died the second summer after Grant was elected the second time, in June, he died at the hospital in Washington, D.C., he never did any work to amount to anything after he came from the army.

I claim a pension because I am hardly able to work and I am afraid I shall lose the sight of my eyes I have the rheumatism so bad I can hardly get along.

Nelson went into the army when Thomas Henry, Perry Parley and James Hill, were, they all were away together, Nelson was sound and healthy then.

Nelson sent some money some two or three times when he was in the army. Thomas Henry knew about that and Mary, my daughter also.
