

[illegible]

I have the same Bible that I gave my children. It is the one of the first of all my children in a Bible but it was taken from me so I can't tell where there The word of my husband's death and my first was in the Bible that I lost I lost my Bible when I was serving somewhere during the war after my husband died I have a letter from Nelson

She said that died was next to Nelson.
I think Susan is about 32 years old.
She was born here in Hagerstown and there are 100 years between each of the the children.

My dear Mr. Brewster I can't tell exactly when I was born before the war I do not.

My son Nelson did the second Summer after Grant was elected the second time, in June, he died at the hospital in Washington, D.C., he never did any work to amount to any thing after he came from the army.

I claim a pension because I am hardly able to work and I am afraid I shall lose the sight of my eye. I have the operation so bad I can hardly get along.

When sent into the war when Thanksgiving, I was nearly and far from ill, and, therefore, was in good health and, therefore, was sound and healthy then.
