

I have known Thomas Henry Colored, of Haystack, over twenty five years knew him well before the war. He worked for me before the war a good deal. During the war he also worked for me. I think until about the close of the year 1861. Then he took service in the army. He was absent several years. And on his return home, resumed his engagements with me, working more constantly than before.

Before he left, and up to the time he entered the army, he was remarkable for his activity,

Strength: and conspicuous for his ability to get through with all kinds of very heavy work

On his return, and resumed labor
