"We have been personally acquainted with the above named Joseph Mosley from the time he came home from the army sometime in 1866 up to the time of his death, which occurred sometime in 1884.

We have resided here in this town continuously, and saw Joseph Mosley frequently, and we know he was afflicted a great deal from the time of his return home from the army, until his death.

We did not know the ~~name~~ name of the disease.

Affiant further states that he has no interest in this claim or its prosecution.
