

Affidavit that the Claimant has not Re-married, and that She is without other means of Support than her Daily Labor.

Act of June 27, 1890.

We, Peter R. Tucker and Edward S. Robinson of the City of Atlantic City County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey do solemnly swear that we are neighbors of Josephine Smith who is the widow of Alfred Smith deceased, on whose account she applies for Pension under the provisions of the Act of June 27, 1890, and that for the past two and four years we have been well acquainted with the said Josephine Smith; that from our frequent intercourse and conversations, and from other circumstances, we have every reason to believe, and we do believe, that the said Josephine Smith has not re-married since the death of the above-mentioned Alfred Smith.

FURTHER, we say that if she had re-married we have reason to believe that we should have known it.

We also believe from the knowledge we have of said widow that she neither owns nor has in use any property of any kind from which a revenue can be derived; that she has no income or present means of support than her daily labor.

That claimant has no property whatever and is obliged to labor (when able) for her own support.

(If dependent upon others not legally bound to support her, it should be so stated. If in the possession of any property, the full value of same, of what it consists, both real and personal, where located, and the income derived therefrom since June 27, 1890, should be stated.)
