

Also personally appeared William Lomack residing at Annapolis and Arthur J. Linn residing at Annapolis persons whom I certify to be respectable and entitled to credit, and being by me duly sworn, say that they were present and saw David Price
 the claimant, sign his name (make his mark) to the foregoing declaration; that they have every reason to believe from the appearance of said claimant and their acquaintance with for 24 years and 27 years, respectively, that he is the identical person he represents himself to be;
 that they have no interest in the prosecution of this claim.

(Signature of Witnesses.)

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 3rd day of July A. D. 1890 and I hereby certify that the contents of the above declaration, &c., were fully made known and explained to the applicant and witnesses before swearing, including the words erased, and the words
 added; and that I have no interest, direct or indirect,
 in the prosecution of this claim.

Justice of the Peace
 (Official Character.)

The act of June 27, 1890, requires, in the case of a soldier:

- (1) An honorable discharge (but the certificate need not be filed unless called for).
- (2) A minimum service of ninety days.
- (3) A permanent physical disability not due to vicious habits. (It need not have originated in the service.)
- (4) The rates under the act are graded from $6 to $12, proportioned to the degree of inability to earn a support, and are not affected by rank held.
- (5) A pensioner under prior laws may apply under this one, or a pensioner under this one may apply under other laws, but he can not draw more than one pension for the same period.
