

History of Claimant's Disability.

State of Maryland; County of Anne Arundel, ss:

In the matter of the original invalid pension claim No. 184, 893

ON THIS 13th day of March A. D. 1889, personally appeared before me, a Justice of Peace in and for the aforesaid County, duly authorized to administer oaths,

Samuel Price aged 44 years, a resident of Annapolis in the County of Anne Arundel and State of Maryland well known to me to be reputable and entitled to credit, and who, being duly sworn, declares in relation to aforesaid case as follows: My Post Office address is Annapolis and has been since my (Give present address in full.)

discharge from the Army.

Since my discharge from said service on the th day of 23. Dec 1865; I have resided in

(Give the name of each place with date of any change of residence.)

and that my occupation has been that of a White Washer

I further state that the disability for which a pension is claimed arises from exposure & Rheumatism which was contracted in the service (Here state the time, place and all the circumstances under which the disability for which pension is claimed originated.)

that I am unable from said disability from following my former occupation as a Blacksmith I have had several severe attacks from said cause and unable to do any manual labor

From my said discharge to present time, I have received the following medical treatment for said disease: from (Give the name and address of each physician employed, and the date when each commenced and ceased to treat you. If any of them are deceased, so state.)

Dr. Wm. Brown now deceased & Dr. Keenan who was in U.S.M. service and left the Naval Academy about 1880 as well as I can remember