Case of Andrew Rakey

Att'y, No.

On this 6th day of April, 1898, at

Charles

county of

State of Ind.

Wayne McCordell, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Barbara Ann Butler, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am about 23 years of age; my post-office address is Hughesville, Charles Co, Ind. occupation gardner.

About three ago my mother Mary & Butler asked me to go to Hughesville with her and when we got there we met Mr.

Rufus Rakey and he told mother her pension paper had come. My sister Dora and my sister Mary were along with us. Mother told me to go into the post office and get her pension paper. I did so.

We all went down to Mr. Rakey's home and he gave me the paper and he give mother what he said was due her. I do not remember how much that was. I do not remember how much Mr. Rakey charged mother but do remember that he said that that was what he charged all he got pension for. I heard my sister Dora say Rakey took out 20¢ all I have heard mother say he took out $20. I now remember that Mr. Rakey did say that he took out his fee of $200 when the two mother for money.
