

DEPOSITION

B

Case of Sarah Gale, No. Unknown

On this 17th day of July, 1890, at Unionville Near Jones Mills County of Falbot State of Maryland, before me, R. P. Fletcher, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared

Mrs Kate Harms, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 28 years of age.

P. O. address Easton Near Jones Mills Md I am the daughter of Joseph Gale who served in Co B. 9th M. I. C. T.
 During March 1890 my mother rec'd word from Joseph Gray that the pension for which my father had been applicant had been allowed - so she and I went to Easton to Joseph Gray house and she told him after he had asked her as to the amount she intended to pay him that she would give him twenty five dollars. This amount he did not seem to think sufficient. so she asked what he thought would be right. He replied $100.00 and that unless she paid him that much he would not get her a widows pension, and as she I knew nothing about the pen sion business she decided to pay him his demand ($100.00). We then and Thos Bidpell went to the old Easton Bank, and my mother had her check of $100.00 some cents cashed. She had the
