DEPOSITION

Case of Joseph Gall, No. 150,030

On this 10 day of July, 1889, at County of Wm. Glauver,

State of Co. Va., before me, R. P. Fletcher, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says:

or where it did occur.

Q Do you know that he was lame in service is it not true that he did not get lame until after his discharge?

A I remember it in the army of that I am positive, I do not know of his having any other disability in service except the lame ankle.

From discharge to his death I lived about 1/2 miles of him but did not see much of him.

He always complained of this ankle and was more or less lame after his discharge.

I have comprehended your questions and my answers are correctly recorded in this deposition.

Witness my hand and seal this 16th day of December 1889

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 16th day of December 1889 and I certify that the contents were fully made known to deponent before signing R. P. Fletcher Special Ex.
