knew Margaret and was present at her death. Wilson had one boy by another woman, Millie Hooks or Campbell, and the son is dead as also is his mother. He got in with Millie in passing around and was not her husband or regular paramour.
 If James Wilson ever lived with any other woman I have no knowledge of it and my acquaintance with him began forty five years ago or thereabouts though I cannot fix the exact year that we became acquainted. I have no financial interest in this claim and am not related to claimant.
 I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct. Usually I lived on adjoining places to James Wilson during his life time as I was in the house with Margaret Gross his paramour. She was pensioned as the widow of Samuel Gross ^{and} ~~who~~ lost her mind and I had to see after her by orders of the court. "Who" erased in line 41 and "and" in line 41 interlined before signing deposition.
