gone through any marriage ceremony with other men since her separation from James Wilson. Well now as to whether Agnes Mason was ceremonially married to James Wilson I heard that they were married and I believe it took place in Baltimore. I never knew Agnes Wilson to associate with other men in a lewd manner. Down here she was considered to be a very nice woman, she lived in Bens Creek about five miles from me at date of her marriage to James Wilson. Since his separation from his wife Agnes he has had children by other women - some by Margaret Gross a pensioner and one by one by Mille Campbell of this section. I knew both women. I heard of no marriage ceremony between James Wilson and the Gross woman or Millie Campbell. I have no financial interest in this claim and am not related to either claimant. I signed an affidavit in the claim of Annie Moore Wilson and was sworn to it by John M. Gott of this vicinity. I forget what point the affidavit was to cover. I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct.
