she has had and she makes her home with us. My mother is supported by her labor as a cook for the Doyle family, not Doyle but Duer is their name. Mother is known to them by the name of Agnes and nothing else. Some people call her Miss Mason and others call her Mrs Wilson.

Q. Has Agnes Mason ever been married?

A. Not before she was married to James Wilson. I have seen him once when in Calvert county on a visit to my aunt and called at his house with some children. I saw no person but Wilson himself and we had no talk.

My mother was never divorced from James Wilson. She has lived in Baltimore ever since she became separated from Wilson and I have lived with her since the day I was born. Mother has lived with no other man in the marital relation since I can recollect her or ever heard anything about.

Q. It seems she was known as Mrs Murray at one time. She must have been the wife of James Murray?

A. No sir she was not his wife. Murray was a single man and never married to mother or any other woman that I ever heard. I am young but I have a good memory.

I have no financial interest in this pension claim. Have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct.
