DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
 BUREAU OF PENSIONS

WASHINGTON

December 5, 1919.

William Fletcher & Co., Attys.,
 Washington,
 D. C.

Sirs:

You are advised that the above cited claim for pension awaits claimant's statement, under oath, showing whether she had been married prior to her marriage to the soldier, as called for October 21, 1919; and if so, the date and manner of dissolution of such marriages, and the name of such former husband or husbands.

She should also state whether she is receiving or has applied for compensation through the Bureau of War Risk Insurance on account of the services of any relative in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States in the World War; and if so, the name and relationship of such relative, and the name of the organization or vessel in which service was rendered. If such claim has been made, some paper in her possession relating to same, should be filed for the purpose of identifying it.

There is further required the best obtainable evidence, record if possible, showing the date of death or divorce of soldier's former wife, Agnes Mason; and showing the date of death of Sarah Curtis.

No affidavit can be considered satisfactory that fails to state the age and postoffice address of the witness, and how he knows the facts stated.

Do not fail to inscribe on each piece of evidence furnished, the soldier's name and service and the number of the claim.

Very respectfully,

M. C. TIEMAN

Acting Commissioner.
