

Baltimore Md. June 30. 1889

Hon. W. M. Dudley,
Comr. of Pensions,
Washington D. C.

Sir,

I have the honor to return herewith cert No. 193939, of Frederick Tarr, together with my report on the premises.

Prior to the receipt of Mr Rathbone's letter, directing me to recover said cert, and forward same with office. #19 - Mr. Chew Swebly, with other certs, handed the same to me.

There is no question but that it was pledged to Swebly to secure a loan of money.

I wrote Mr. Tarr a note immediately after receiving Mr. Rathbone's letter above mentioned which was on the 11. inst, as I wished to learn from him all the facts connected with the cert, going into the hands of Swebly, but he has not responded in person, by letter or messenger.

Pledging certs for money, has got to be such an evil in Balto.
