DEPOSITION *C*Case of Perj Frisby, No. *560.145*On this Continued day of _____, 18*9*, at _____ County of _____
State of _____, before me, _____, a

Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared _____

_____, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says:

I have stated before as to the nature of his complaints I cannot swear. I never made any such statements at Lloyd's office. I could not do so because I had no knowledge that Frisby was wounded or captured in service, however I now think he did have Rheumatism in service. Not being able to read or write I cannot identify the papers you show me.

I have now heard read the affidavit of Dec 19, 1892, executed before Wm McCarley, Jr. and W. Balke St. I have no knowledge that I ever made or swore to any such statement as contained in that affidavit nor read. We were out in an engagement on July 3, 1864. Our first battle was July 30, 1864. I have no personal knowledge that Frisby was ever wounded in service as therein stated and I do not know how I was made to sign such a statement. I have known Frisby ever since the war. I know that he has never been able to do much work since the war because of his disabilities. His complaints of Rheumatism principally. He never told me, to my recollection that he was ever wounded in service. In the best of my recollection this is the first time I ever heard of him being
