

Ben. Frisby. Ben. Frisby left no property of any kind and his widow has had none. She is a very poor woman and has lost her mind. She is suffering for the necessaries of life. Her son Charles pretends to make his home with her and provide for her, but he does very little for her and she needs some one to look after her and keep her from suffering. I have no interest in this claim for pension. You have read this deposition to me, I understand it and it is correct.

William ^{his} White
mark

Attest:

James White
Flarence White

Deponent.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 17th day of Jan, 1902, and I certify that the contents were fully made known to deponent before signing.

A. H. Davis,

Special Examiner.