

know what the sickness was. I know he had a bad cold, he used to be coughing and spitting when drilling, I noticed that, I would hear him cough. From the way he was coughing and spitting I thought the cold was in his breast.

I am entirely wrong, I was thinking of Purnell Slocum when I mentioned the above.

I cannot recall this claimant except his name.

I cannot testify if he had any sickness or disease.

I remember we had to bathe in a river at Benedict in cold weather we had orders to do it.

I have heard stated what he claims, but I cannot remember this man, except his name.

I understand the questions and my answers are correctly recorded.
