Dentist,

I have known claimant about ten (10) years, during which time to date he has (at times) done odd jobs for me then I first knew him he was sickly, & in poor health. He has on two occasions come to me when his hands were puffed up and swollen from disease rheumatism. I thought.

I have extracted teeth for him. His gums were affected with gum scum or from mercurial treatment.

Since I first saw claimant and to this date he has been totally disabled for the performance of manual labor I am not interested in this claim for pension or relative to claimant.
