Weddings

Schnitzlein—Jung.

Miss Eva Jung, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Jung, of 1706 North Patterson Park avenue, was married Thursday evening to Albert A. Schnitzlein, in the parsonage of the Martin Luther Evangelical Church. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Dr. D. E. Snapp. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Ferrell as bridesmaid, while Mr. Charles Schnitzlein, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. The flower girl was Miss Christina Boeck, and Charles E. Jung was the [illegible]bearer. Following the ceremony [illegible]red to the hall at 1724½ North [illegible] where a reception was held. [illegible]was the order of the evening. [illegible]nts were served. Mr. and Mrs. [illegible]in will reside at 1626 North [illegible] avenue.

Piasecke—Brunthaler.

Miss Anna Brunthaler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Quinn, was married to Dr. Joseph S. Piasecke at St. Martin's Catholic Church by Rev. Father Brodbach, on Monday, March 24. The church was brilliantly illuminated and decorated for the ocasion. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Annetta Dull, as maid of honor, and the groom by his uncle, E. Zielinski, of Brooklyn, N. Y. The bride was attired in a pearl-gray charmeuse, with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses. The maid of honor was gowned in a taupe charmeuse satin dress and carried a bouquet of roses. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride, which was beautifully decorated. Mr. and Mrs. Piasecke will make their home in Hartford, Ct. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Piasecke, of Hartford, Ct., and Mrs. W. H. Dull, Mr. and Mrs. Selander, Mr. and Mrs. A. Se[illegible], and Mrs. Baker, Mr. and [illegible]er, Mr. and Mrs. Sandruch, Marie and Nina Houseman, Olive [illegible]ouise Turner, Annetta Dull, Mar[illegible] Conway, May Klein, Elizabeth [illegible]ague, E. Manekin—Miller.

[illegible]ss Theresa Miller, daughter of Mr. [illegible]Miller, a well-known business man of [illegible]Baltimore, was married last Sun[illegible]afternoon to Mr. Morris B. Manekin, [illegible]eville, Ky., at Hazazer's Hall, West [illegible]lin street. Rev. Dr. B. Bleiberg, [illegible] of Eden Street Synagogue, per[illegible]d the ceremony. The maid of honor [illegible]Miss Sara Manekin and the best man [illegible]Mr. Benjamin Miller, brother of [illegible]ride. The latter was given away in [illegible]ge by her father. The ushers were [illegible], Louis Miller, Morris Goodman, [illegible]Goodman, Dr. Benjamin Thaman, [illegible]Goldstein and George J. Cherry, of [illegible]elphia. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Isidor Young, Mr. and Mrs. Max Miller, Miss Sara Donenbirsh, Miss Bertha Cleptach, Mr. and Mrs. M. Luria, Mr. Harry Young, Mr. and Mrs. M. Dreeben and Miss Anna Lester, of Washington; Miss Helen Caran, Miss Rebecca Cherry, Miss Anna Cherry, Mr. George J. Cherry, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cherry, Mr. Sam Goldstein, Mr. and Mrs. Manekin and Mr. Joseph Cherry, of Williamsport, and Mr. Max A. Jaffe, of Williamsport, Pa. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Manekin left for a 10-day trip to Atlantic City and New York. Upon their return they will spend a few days at the home of Mrs. Miller, 10 South Ann street. Later they will go to Pineville, Ky., where they will make their permanent home. Mr. Manekin has a flourishing business in that town, where he is well thought of. Mrs. Manekin is well known in the eastern section of the city, where she has lived all her life. She is popular, and has a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Hazazer's Hall was attractively decorated for the wedding. The banquet room was a scene of beauty. Above each table, suspended from the ceiling, were large and brilliant electric fixtures, which shed a unique and bright light over the large room. Among those present were a number of prominent professional and business men.

Linville—Tarbert.

Miss Helen Eleanora Tarbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Upton Heath Tarbert, of Glencoe, and Mr. Ralph Kerwin Linville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Linville, of 730 Reservoir street, Baltimore, were married on Wednesday at Glen View, the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Duncan McCulloh, of Immanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, Glencoe, performed the ceremony in the presence of the relatives and a few friends. Miss Gertrude Shipley, of Baltimore, played the wedding march. Messrs. John A. U. Heath, William A. and Maxwell B. Tarbert, brothers of the bride, and Irving McClosky and William Culp, of Baltimore, were ushers. Miss Mary Tarbert, sister of the bride, dressed in white embroidered crepe, with pink satin girdle, and carrying pink Killarney roses, was maid of honor. Mr. Donald Linville, brother of the groom, of Baltimore, was best man. The bride wore white embroidered charmeuse trimmed in pearls and rose point and duchesse lace, and carried a white prayerbook with streamers of lilies-of-the-valley. The commodious and beautifully arranged dwelling was decorated prettily with palms, Easter lilies, roses and potted plants. After a Northern trip Mr. and Mrs. Linville will reside at Homewood Apartment, corner Charles and Thirty-first streets, Baltimore. They were recipients of many handsome presents.

Stein—Hedges.

A pretty wedding took place Easter Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hedges, when their daughter, Miss Lucy G. Hedges, was married to Mr. Walter M. Stein. The bride was attired in a costume of white net over white satin and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was attired in a delicate pink silk and mulle costume and carried a bouquet of white roses. Henry Miller was the best man. The house was decorated with potted plants and flowers. Mrs. Beulah Hackley played the wedding march. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles Adle. Those present were: George P. B. Stein, George Stein, Jr., Miss Gertrude Stein, William Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, Miss Gertrude Stein, Mrs. James C. Hackley, Hilda Hackley, Mrs. Mollie Keil, Katherine Keil, Mrs. Annie Krichton, Wilber Krichton, James Hedges, Miss E. Miller, Mrs. G. Schatz, Sr., Mrs. A. G. Schatz, Mrs. Charles Schatz, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wheeler, C. Flaharty, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Purcell, Margaret Purcell, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Flower.

White—Anderson.

A pretty wedding took place on Thursday evening at 6 o'clock P. M. at St. John's Methodist Episcopal Church, Salisbury, Md., on Deals Island, when Miss Ruth Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leven Albert Anderson was married to Thomas W. H. White, Jr., of Salisbury, Md. The bride's gown was of white charmeuse, trimmed with duchess lace and pearls. Her tulle veil was cought with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and Bride's roses. Both the bride and groom are very popular and have a wide circle of friends in Salisbury and neighboring counties. Mr. White is one of Salisbury's most enterprising young men and is one of Wicomico's commissioners. Owing to a recent death in the groom's family, the wedding was very quiet, only members of families being present. After a trip North, Mr. and Mrs. White will be at home after April 10 at White Hall, Salisbury, Md.

Knight—Gardner.

Miss Olive Josephine Gardner, formerly of Baltimore, and J. Milton Knight were united in the holy bonds of wedlock in the Congregational Church at St. Petersburg, Fla., by Dr. D. Y. Moore, pastor, on Easter Monday. The church was adorned with the Easter decorations, lilies and evergreens, used for the regular church services, and these with the sounds of the melodious wedding march, played on the great pipe organ by R. G. Bailey, organist, together with the solemnity of the occasion, combined to make the affair one of the prettiest, of small weddings, of this season.

The marriage ceremony was performed in the presence of only the relatives and a few close friends. Both of them receiving the hearty congratulations of their friends. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Knight left for Baltimore. Mr. Knight is from Baltimore, where they will make their home.

Wood—Grevious.

Miss Ella Grevious, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Grevious, of Gloucester county, Va., was married to Christopher Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wood, of Gloucester. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jones Watkins, of Enon Baptist Church, on Thursday, March 20. The bride was attended by Miss Nannie Wood. Wise Smith acted as best man.

After the wedding a reception was given at 121 West Twenty-first street.

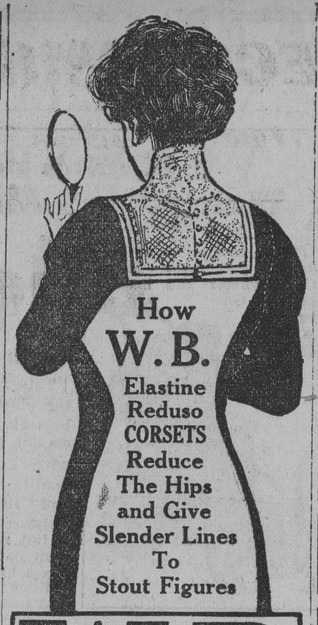

Funk—Gallagher.

A pretty wedding took place last Wednesday afternoon at St. John's Catholic Church, Eager and Valley streets, when Miss Ellen Gallagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Gallagher, was married to John W. Funk. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. Ripple. The bride was attired in a blue broadcloth traveling suit, with blue hat trimmed with ostrich plumes. She wore a corsage bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Mary Gallagher, sister of the bride, wa[illegible] of honor. She was gowned in [illegible] broadcloth suite, with a black [illegible] hat, and wore sweet peas. The [illegible] was attended by his cousin, [illegible] Kuhlmann. Immediately after th[illegible] mony the bride and groom lef[illegible] trip North, during which they w[illegible] Philadelphia and Atlantic City, [illegible] return they will reside at 22[illegible] Broadway. They will be at h[illegible] their friends after April 1.

Bruce—Inners.

Miss Virgie Inners, daughter [illegible] and Mrs. Howard Inners, of 1324 [illegible] street, and Charles A. Bruce, [illegible] Covington street, were married [illegible] day evening, March 26, at the [illegible] the bride. The ceremony was p[illegible] by Rev. Mr. Finkbinder, of Gra[illegible]

Buying Silverware Always Insist on Knowing the Weight

Stieff Silver

REPOUSSE SILVERWARE THE MOST DESIRABLE

While the hand-chased or repousse silver is a little more expensive than plain or colonial silver, it is worth the difference in price. First, because the repousse silver is never duplicated in plated ware; secondly, it is all made by hand and heavier silver is required to make the repousse than is necessary in the plain ware.

The repousse silver is not seen in every store. Stieff repousse is more a work of art than it is a commercial article of utility. Whoever has purchased Stieff repousse silver and paid the difference in price never regrets it, as it lasts a lifetime and the beautiful Stieff patterns never become tiresome to the eye.

Our patrons and the public are invited to call at our factory and see the painstaking way the Stieff Repousse Ware is made, the various processes of manufacture and the skillful hand-wrought finish by the Stieff craftsmen will interest admirers of beautiful sterling ware.

Although all Stieff ware is of the highest quality, the price is little, if any, higher than is asked for ordinary ware. The selling price in every instance is based on the weight of metal, plus the cost of manufacture and a fair margin of profit. All Stieff ware is sold direct to the public, in our own inexpensively but conveniently located salesrooms, at manufacturers' prices.
