Canton.

Canton, Md., March 28.—A very pretty wedding was performed on Wednesday afternoon of last week at the parsonage of Highland M. E. Church, Highland avenue and Pratt street, when Miss Nellie Marks, daughter of Mrs. Jennie Marks, of 3510 Claremount avenue, Highlandtown, became the bride of Mr. William Gasser, 3708 Mount Pleasant avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. L. Beall, pastor of Highland Church. Miss Jennie Marks, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. James Creighton acted as best man. The bride and her attendant wore blue coat suits. After the wedding the couple were tendered a reception at the home of the bride. The rooms were tastefully decorated for the occasion. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Gasser left for Atlantic City. They returned home on Wednesday and now reside at 3708 Mount Pleasant avenue. The annual Easter ball of the Wittelsbach Verein was held on Monday evening at Highland Academy, Highlandtown. The hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Delegations of members from the local German lodges and societies were present. The members of the Alumni Association of Highlandtown Public School held their fifth subscription dance on Monday evening at the assembly hall of the school, Pratt and Clinton streets. The committee of arrangements was as follows: Mr. William T. Nizer, chairman; Misses Elizabeth Richardson, Hilda Ortel, Louisa Miller and Lula M. Sehrt, William Evans, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Evans, of 503 South Third street, Highlandtown, who was operated upon on Wednesday of last week by Dr. W. E.
