

MARYLAND COLONIZATION JOURNAL.

grey and fox squirrels, racoons, opossums and beavers.

Fish of many kinds are in great abundance, and are of a flavour very superior to any which I had ever before tasted.

Oysters are also to be had of an excellent relish.

An impression having gone abroad among the coloured people of Maryland, that the Society's territory abounds with ravenous beasts of prey, I feel it to be my duty to state that, during the whole time I was in the Colony, I neither saw nor heard of one such, except the leopard; and from him no danger need be apprehended as he flies off upon the approach of a man.

Cotton, sugar-cane, rice, coffee, tobacco, and a variety of other articles of commerce, may be cultivated to almost any extent.

The natives immediately contiguous to the Cape are not so entirely friendly in their feelings as I had hoped to find them—and, but for their extraordinary cowardice, I should fear much for the safety of the colonists.

King Freeman, the proprietor of Cape Town, has given more trouble than all the rest. His position to the Colony enables him to cut off supplies from the bush, or country, and, unless he is made to feel his inferiority to your governor and his government, there will be no end to his exactions for heavy duties.

His town, which contains a population of at least one thousand, including women and children, completely blocks up the entrance to the Town of Harper, and of course the egress of its citizens to the country.

Messrs. Barnard, Holmes and Balderston were appointed said committee, and reported the following constitution, which was twice read and unanimously adopted.

R. MICKLE, Treas. Md. S. C. So.

From the Snow Hill Borderer.

Snow Hill, May 11, 1835.

MR. EDITOR:—The following is the copy of a letter from Nathaniel Harman, one of the emigrants from this county to Africa, lately received by Dr. John S. Martin of this place; the letter is, I believe, in the proper hand writing of Nathaniel. You will confer a favour on the friends of colonization by giving it an insertion in your paper.

Nathaniel's mother was a very old woman when she left our county, perhaps 75. Mr. Dennis whom Nathaniel mentions is Henry Dennis, who also went from this county, and who is well known to the citizens of Snow Hill.

It would perhaps not be amiss to state that Nathaniel is the son of Lazarus Harman, who was a soldier of the revolution, under Gen. Green; and hence the name of his son Nathaniel Green.

Respectfully, GEO. HUDSON.

Cape Palmas, August 10, 1834.

SIR:—I take the opportunity to rite a few lines to let you know that I am well and family and hope that these lines may find you the same, and likewise Mr. Arey Spence, I now live in Africa and very well satisfied, so far as I have seen of it. But I am more pleased with the new settlement than I was with the old settlement. But my mind has been much concerned about the colored people in the State of Maryland, how to inform them to my satisfaction so that they can believe when I tell them the truth concerning the country. You all very well know that there has bin much said about Africa, Mr. George Hutson, Edward Demock, John Martin, these gentlemen know that I told them that I tho't it was a take in. Mr. George Hutson said that if I disputed the reportes from Africa I disputed the christian religion. But they said that they would not begrudge no sum for a letter from me, but not having an opportunity to rite to my satisfaction before now.

I have raised some Casada, Peas, Beans, &c. I thank you sir, if you please to send me some Tobacco and some cloth, make a
