

of Elizabeth W. Rush, claims compensation for five enlisted slaves; and for himself, one slave. P.O., Princess Anne Md.

Mr. Jas. Shipley, Ellicott's Mills, one slave,
Mrs. Ann Waller, by Robt G. Waller, claims two slaves, — John Waller claims one, Washington Waller claims one, John B. Waller claims one, Robt. Patton claims one, and John Phoebus claims three slaves —

W. Elias Cook, North Branch, claims for one slave Sam Goff; — Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens, Baltimore, claims two slaves Jerome Bonaparte & Peter Brown.

A Letter was received from Mr. John Ruth, Centerville for blanks, which request was complied with —

Blanks were supplied to a large number of applicants —

J. P. Stevens, Attorney, filed the application of Henry Timbely of Baltimore for compensation for service of slave James White, enlisted in 7th Regt. U. S. C. T., Co. H., and presents satisfactory proof of Loyalty and Evidence of title.

Adjourned at 4.30 P.M.

John M. Sears
Clerk

Baltimore Saturday, July 23rd /64

The Board met at 10 O'clk A.M., read and approved the proceedings of yesterday.

Mrs P. S. Bordoin, Eastville, Va., claims compensation for seven slaves, enlisted in tenth Cold's Regiment by Col. Nelson, and for three slaves enlisted by Genl. Birney's officers: he was furnished with the necessary blanks — Mr. Bordoin desired that the claim of his neighbor, Mr. Geadly be entered, for six slaves enlisted by Col. Nelson in the tenth Regiment.

Capt Chas. B.razier of Dorchester County, presented claim for compensation for one slave enlisted by Genl. Birney.

Mr Wm. C. Farrow, Snow Hill Md., and Joseph Godfrey Esq, Sheriff of Worcester County, made application by letter for blanks; — 25 were sent to each —

The President replied at length to the letter of Dr. Lamb A. Harrison, received on the 22nd inst.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stephens of Baltimore, filed applications for compensation for service of slave Jerome Bonaparte, enlisted in Fourth Regiment U. S. C. T., Co. B., and slave Peter Brown, enlisted in 11th Regt U. S. C. T., Co. B.

Adjourned at 4.30 P.M.

John M. Sears
Clerk