balances against banks
depos[illegible]s, and in de-exclu[illegible] what stands sing o[illegible]bout $7,- n near[illegible]0 stands sitories[illegible]esidue
The l[illegible]asu-
ed no[illegible]15,
l at [illegible];
and o
d awa
is m
ate fi
tant.
80.00
a loca 22, to
e fro
thhel
he p
Gove
ach o

econd inquiry, as to the
against all kinds of col-
has not been secured sixty eight millions of dollars received by the Government was in a depreciated currency, not more than half as valuable as that in which the stock given in exchange for it, has been, and will be redeemed. Here then is another loss of thirty-four millions, resulting incontestably and exclusively, from the depreciation of the currency, and making, with the sum lost by the discount, forty six millions of dollars.'

Mr. McDuffie says, and says truly, in his [illegible] forty six millions was [illegible] loss she ever furnished. A supply then of twenty odd millions of gold would meet all objections arising from the withdrawal of her