Of President and Vice President.

ALBERT CONSTABLE of Harford
ROBT H GOLDSBOROUGH of Talbot
JOHN N STEELE of Dorset County

From the Baltimore Chronicle, Upton S. Heath and William Frick Esqrs. have been chosen the Jackson candidates for Electors of President and Vice President for this district.

Electoral Election.—The Election for Presidential Electors in Maryland is to take place the Second Mondy of November, which will be the 12th of the month.

President Jackson, reached Washington from Tennessee, on Friday of last week.

☞ Our County Court commences on Monday next. We shall be extremely happy to see our delinquent friends. Do give us a call at any rate, if nothing farther.

Centreville was never better supplied with fine new Goods than at the present period. Nearly all of our Merchants have just returned from the cities supplied to overflowing with every useful and choice article, too cheap to mention. Such beautiful cloths have rarely been seen, and the texture and finish of some of their casimers and casinetts stand unsurpassed. Not to pass the Ladies by our merchants (who are among the most accommodating) have provided for their use some splendid Silks, cottons and every little nick nack that the fashions of the times, or the economy of the day, warrants.—Several of the stores in town have been enlarged, and one or two new ones opened—Centreville is really a busy, stirring little place, It is almost incredible how cheap the merchants sell their goods.

Why is a debtor confined in a jail like a leaky boat? D'ye give it up? Because he wants bailing out.

Why is a man's foot in a tight shoe like a drunkard in a grog-shop? D'ye give it up? Because its getting corned, TENDER COURTSHIP—The young ladies of New Caledonia and the adjacent Islands, repair with a patriarchal simplicity, to the wells and fountains of their neighborhood for water. When a youth has seen and conceived a passion for one of them he repairs to the fountain, and lies in ambush in a thicket or behind a rock. As the lady approaches with her pitcher, and stoops to draw the water, her lover, taking advantage of her when she is in the most defenceless posture, rushes upon her and strikes her down with a club then seizing her by the hair of her head, he drags her away wounded and bleeding to his hut and she thus becomes his wife.

IMPASSIONED ELOQUENCE!—The Saratoga Sentinel gives the speech of a young orator at a late conveption in that county. He was from Waterford and a great wit withal, and he gathered himself together and exploded somewhat in the following manner: "Mr. Chairman," said he.—I say Mr Chiarman, ahem! as I before said Mr Chairman here his eye kindled and his bosom heaved with the majesty of his conception—this administration is a mere fudge! and having uttered these remarkable words he sat down mid the deafening acclamations of his auditary.—

Troy Budget,

Lately a horse belonging Mr. Jasper of Stebbing died after suffering as it appeared great agony the cause of which defied the skill of M. Thomas Hudson veterinary surgeon of Great Dunmow to remove. On a post mortem examination six stones were found in the stomach one of them was of the almost incredible weight of eightpound eleven ounces and the five others weighed four pounds. [English paper.

CAT-ology.—A friend has mentioned to us the following fact, which is to less true than curious in natural history. The gentleman to whom we refer closed his house for a few weeks, during the height of the recent epidemic, and retired with family into the country. On re-opening the house, after an absence of twenty-five days, it was discovered that a favorite cat had been accidentally shut up in the parlor. It is a new house, perfectly tight and ratproof. There was no food of any description, nor any liquid, at which puss could come, nor was it possible for rat or mouse, or any thing living, to get into the apartment. The cat however, was living though greatly emaciated, and is doing well.
