We find the following in the New York Mercantile of Tuesday;—

"ADREW D'OR.—We call upon the Globe to know if it be true, that a new coin has been ordered at the mint, to be called Andrew d'or? The monarch of France had his Louis d'or, he of Prussia his Frederic d'or, Bonaparte his Napoleon d'or—and is Andrew Jackson now to have his Andrew d'or?"

[It will not make a button's difference whether there is such a coin or not, the spirit that would dictate the act has already been manifested. We were reading the paragraph yesterday afternoon to some people, and when we came to the words Andrew d'or, an honest man near us, who understood nothing but plain English, expressed a belief "Andrew door" must be the "Kitchen door" for the lower cabinet]—U. S. Gazette.

WOMAN.

The following extracts are from Henry's Commentary on the Bible:

"Adam was first formed, then Eve, and she was made of man, and for the man; all which are urged as reasons for the humility, modesty, silence, and submissiveness, of that sex in general, and particularly the subjection and reverence which wives owe to their husbands. Yet man being made last of the best and most excellent of all, Eves's being made after Adam, and out of him, puts an honor upon that sex, as the glory of the man If man is the head, she is the crown to her husband, the crown of the visible creation. The man was dust refined, but the woman was dust double refined, one removed further from the earth."

Woman was made of a rib out of the side of Adam; not made out of his head to top him: nor out of feet to be trampled upon by him; but out of his side, to be equal with him under his arm, to be protected, and near his heart, to be beloved.

SUPERSTITION.

A few days since a gentleman's servant was driving along a piebald horse in a stanhope along the western road, in Newbury, (Eng,) He was accosted by a young woman of very respectable appearance, who asked him what she should take to cure her of the hooping cough? The man very honestly said he did not know:—the young woman then said, "If a person that has the hooping cough takes any thing that is directed to be taken by a man who is driving a pied horse, it will be a certain cure;—the man on the strength of his piebald diploma prescribed gin and water, and the parties separated;—Last week the young woman again saw the servant with the piebald horse when she informed him that she had taken the gin and water as he had directed, and it had cured her of the hooping cough in a very few days;—Such a thing is faith.

Judge Baird was assaulted in our street one day last week, on his way from the Court House to his chamber, by a party in a cause against whom the Court had charged the jury unfavorably, and several blows inflicted before the assailant could be arrested. He is now in the hands of the law—Uniontown Pa. Dem.
