TAILORING.

The Subscriber, thankful for past favors would take this method of informing his old friends, customers, and the public generally, that he still continues to carry on the TAILORING BUSINESS in all its various branches, at his old stand on Front Street, in Centrevill, Queen Ann's county, Md. and hopes by strict attention to business to please all those who may still continue to patronize him, assuring them that no pains shall be spared on his part to execute orders with equity and despatch. He has now and will still continue to keep, a supply of Good Workmen, which will enable him to execute his work as well as it can be done on the Eastern Shore of Md. or in the cities. He would further say, in conclusion, that he is compelled from imperious necessity to close his old business —as some of his accounts have been outstanding and unsettled from 3 to 5 years, and he would here make it generally known, so as to leave every man without excuse, that from his precarious situation, he is compelled and likewise determined to close his old business, he therefore hereby humbly solicits all persons, who have had dealings with him, whose accounts are unsettled and have been standing more than six months from this date, to call on him and close them either by paying the cash, or giving their notes of hand for the amount due, on or before the 25th day of April, 1831, as further indulgence cannot be given. I shall certainly without further delay put all such delinquent's accounts in the hands of an officer and have them closed by judgment. I hope therefore, from this friendly notice none will take any exception to my thus proceeding, as my object is to close my business, and if possible without giving offence to any one. The Public's humble serv't.
