INTELLIGENCE, AGENCY, & COLLECTOR'S OFFICE.

THE subscriber impressed with a belief that an Intelligence and an Agency Office, conducted upon proper principles, with a due regard to the interests of society, would be conducive to public benefit, has been induced to open one at No. 48 BALTIMORE STREET, one door from the North West corner of Gay and Baltimore streets, Baltimore, where he will regularly attend to the duties of his establishment, and sedulously endeavor, to render justice to those who

Scots becoming fat in the early part of the summer, the "North-Walesers," as the Welch drovers call them, growing considerable, and becoming sufficient meat to be slaughtered, by butchers who do not require beef of the first quality, in July.

Both the Welch and Scotch cows yield a fair quantity of milk, are gentle and hardy, as well as kindly fattening; but there is no cow of any breed in the United Kingdom, of her size, that yields any thing like the quantity of milk as that yielded by the little polled Suffolk cow, the carcass of which, when well grass fattened, and she is not more than seven years old, weighs no more than 65 to 75 stones of 8 lbs. As a confirmation of the accuracy of this statement, I make the following extract from the Appendix of Young's Farmer's Tour, published in the year 1771, since which date the breed has not undergone the least alteration either by cross or in quality. "Three cows, one of them a feiler after the first calf, the property of the Rev. Mr. Aspin, of Cockfield, in Suffolk, yielded, from June to December, 1770, 683 pounds of butter, the old ones, for some time in the height of their season, giving eight gallons of milk per day." These cows," adds an agent, collector and intelligence office. Keeper, we wish him every success in his business, believing that he will, by his conduct, merit the approbation of those who may employ him.

SALE OF LANDS.

ON WEDNESDAY the 18th day of August next, will be sold on the premises, at public sale, to the highest bidder, the following lands, late the property of Lloyd Nicols deceased, consisting of a neat farm adjoining Mount Pleasant House, and sundry valuable wood lots, all within about three or four miles of the Town of Easton.

That is to say, one farm of about 123 1-2 acres of cleared arable land and fine meadow, with about 98 acres of wood and timber conveniently annexed—having on it a small wooden dwelling house with a barn and granary.

The land is a kind soil, and containing an excellent body of meadow and marl; is capable of being made highly productive and valuable—perpetual streams of flowing water pass through it—and it is well adapted to the growth of all kinds of crops and stock—the situation is high and healthy—the neighbourhood very excellent—and it is a convenient distance from Easton, the Third Haven Creek and the Choptank river.

Also sundry lots of wood land consisting of about 10 acres each—many of them finely timbered, and the others having good portions of timber and generally heavily wooded. Persons desirous of purchasing are invited to view these lands as now laid off—they are worthy the attention of Farmers and Speculators.

Also, on Friday following, being the 20th August, will be sold on the premises several lots in the Town of Easton on Harrison Street near the old Market House.

Terms of Sale—The purchasers are to pass bonds with approved security bearing date from the sale, to pay one fourth of the purchase money in nine months from day of sale with interest on the whole purchase money from the day of sale—another fourth part in eighteen months from the day of sale with interest on the whole balance of purchase money unpaid—another fourth part thereof in twenty seven months from the day of sale with interest on the whole balance of the purchase money unpaid—and the remaining fourth part thereof in thirty six months from the day of sale with interest on the whole balance of the purchase money unpaid—conveyances to be executed upon the payment of the purchase money and interest. Possession given to purchasers upon execution of their bonds. For further information apply to
