WORKINGTON,

Better known as the residence of the late Col. Geo. W. Jackson. This Farm contains about 1250 acres, one half of which is cleared. It is situated in Somerset county, about 8 miles from Princess-Anne, on Back Creek, a branch of Monokin River, and has navigable water for batteaux within 50 yards of the dwelling. The arable land is well adapted to the growth of clover, Indian corn, wheat, oats, &c. and it is believed this farm contains more good wheat soil, than any other farm of the same size in this part of the Eastern Shore. COLLECTOR'S NOTICE.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—The Honorable the Levy Court of Caroline county having seen proper to appoint me your Collector for the present year, I deem it necessary in the commencement of my duties as such, to apprise you of the course I shall pursue in the collection of the Taxes of the county. The Law will be my guide; it is rigid and positive on a Collector. He is allowed six months only to collect the whole amount of Taxes due from the county—and if not collected within that time, he lays himself liable to pay Interest on every dollar not collected, and liable to Execution the first Court after his six months are out. Therefore you will at once see the necessity of a close and rigid collection of the taxes of your county, to enable me to pay off the various large demands against your Collector. I do hope that every good Citizen will feel himself under the strictest obligation to be prompt in the payment of what may be due for the present year—I have often boasted of the moral obligations that exist amongst the people of our county, in the payment of their private debts—and hope to see it realized in the discharge of their public dues to their Collector. Last year the taxes were $1 12 cents in the hundred dollars, this year it will be about $1 14; and by referring to last year's receipt you will know what to hold in readiness for the present year, against you are called on. The Law requires me to call at your house once for your taxes, and no more. We have been blessed with a good crop of small grain, and it requires but little exertion on your part to meet your engagement for the present year.

JOHN A. SANGSTON, Collector of Caroline county.

PRIZE ESSAY.

THE MEDICAL AND CHIURGICAL FACULTY OF MARYLAND, at their annual convention held in the city of Baltimore, on the 7th and 8th June, 1830, passed the following resolution, viz:

"Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed to award a premium of one hundred dollars for such essay as they or a majority of them shall consider worthy thereof. The subject of such essay to be selected by said committee."

In conformity with the benevolent intentions of the Faculty expressed in the aforesaid resolution the committee offer a premium of $100 for an essay upon the nature and sources of the Malaria or noxious Miasma, from which originate the family of diseases usually known by the denomination of bilious diseases; together with the best means of preventing the formation of Malaria, removing the sources, and obviating their effects upon the human constitution when the cause cannot be removed.

The committee have been induced to call the attention of the profession to this subject, because of its vast importance to society at large. The immense extent to which this fruitful cause of disease operates, has not yet been accurately calculated, nor any probable estimate made of the mortality which it occasions. The public attention has been justly directed to other subjects of general improvement, but we believe no adequate effort has yet been made to awaken and direct the public mind to the prevention of the evils dependant upon Malaria, although it is well known to medical men to be extending its influence, and threatening to depopulate some of the finest sections of this country, as it has already depopulated some of the fairest portions of the old world.

Candidates for the prize are to cause their dissertations to be delivered to the subscriber, in Baltimore, (postage paid,) on or before the first day of May 1831. Each dissertation to be accompanied by a sealed letter, superscribed with a motto corresponding with that prefixed to the essay. None of the letters, except that to which the motto of the successful essay shall be affixed, will be opened; the other essays shall de disposed of according to the direction of the proprietors.

HENRY W. BAXLEY, Secretary to the Committee.

MR. HART and MISS PENNELL, respectfully inform the public, that their vacation commences this day, and that the duties of their School will be resumed on Monday, the 13th of September. Miss Pennell, whose health is in a great measure restored, hopes to be able to give her uninterrupted attention hereafter to her pupils. To enable them to do ample justice to the younger members of the School, they have engaged the services of a young lady most advantageously known in Easton, who will assist them in the juvenile department of the Academy, and thus give the principals a more extended opportunity of rendering themselves useful to those who are older and more advanced. Amidst interruptions arising from causes beyond their controul, their school has received a most liberal share of public patronage—grateful for the past, and determined to secure the good will of the public by deserving it—they pledge themselves (in addition to their own untiring exertions)—as soon as the income of the School will permit, to procure such efficient aid as will enable them to afford to the Young Ladies of Talbot county, an education as liberal and accomplished as they can procure elsewhere, at an expense comparatively trifling. Young Ladies desirous to learn Music will be taught in the best manner, by a lady who will remove to Easton on the 1st of October, and will hereafter give instruction to the members of this Academy, who may wish to learn this branch, on the most reasonable terms. The terms of tuition for all the branches taught in the Academy (exclusive of Music) are from 12 to 28 dollars per annum. Parents, residing at a distance, desirous of sending their daughters to this School may hear of situations where they can be boarded on the most reasonable terms, by inquiring of S. Lowe, Esq. or Messrs. Rhodes, Kennard and Loveday. Mr. Hart avails himself of this opportunity to return his most sincere thanks to the public for the encouragement given to himself and daughter, in their well meant exertions, in communicating knowledge to their pupils, to his friends and neighbours for their hospitable and kind attentions to his family, and particularly to his pupils, for their strict attention to the regulations of the Academy, their devotion to their studies, their ladylike deportment and affectionate intercourse with each other.
