INTELLIGENCE, AGENCY, & COLLECTOR'S OFFICE.

THE subscriber impressed with a belief that an Intelligence and Agency Office, conducted upon proper principles, would be conducive to the interests of society, would be conducive to public benefit, has been induced to open one at No. 48 BALTIMORE STREET, one door from the North West corner of Gay and Baltimore streets, Baltimore, where he will regularly attend to the duties of his establishment, and sedulously endeavour to render justice to those who may favour him with their patronage.

He will promptly and faithfully attend to the negotiations of all concerns confided to his management, as also to the collection of debts and ground rents, and all other kind of claims. He likewise will attend particularly to the selling of REAL and PERSONAL PROPERTY—his office is situated in a central part of the city, which has many facilities in the way of disposing of good slaves by obtaining the highest prices for their owners and securing good places for slaves, without being sent out of the state.

Referring to the subjoined testimonials of character, he respectfully begs leave to solicit a share of patronage, and to remain the public's obedient servant

JOHN BUSK. Having been solicited by Mr. John Busk to permit him to refer to us in support of his character and standing, we take pleasure in complying with his request. We have known him for a long series of years in various capacities, and have always found him correct in his deportment and honest in his dealings. Undersigning that he is about to commence the business of a General Agent, Collector and Intelligence Office Keeper, we wish him every success in his business, believing that he will, by his conduct, merit the approbation of those who may employ him.

For Stove Pipes Gutters 7 or 12 inches David Brown has for sale, in fee simple on east Baltimore, east Pratt and Salisbury streets (each in the vicinity of the best water, in the city) improved and unimproved property, of indisputable titles. A part of the payment would be taken in groceries at fair prices, on application as above.

Baltimore, May 11

PRIZE ESSAY. THE MEDICAL AND CHIRURGICAL FACULTY OF MARYLAND, at their annual convention held in the city of Baltimore, on the 7th and 8th June, 1830, passed the following resolution, viz:

Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed to award a premium of one hundred dollars for such essay as they or any two of them shall consider worthy thereof. The subject of such essay to be selected by said committee.

In conformity with the benevolent intentions of the Faculty expressed in the aforesaid resolution the committee offer a premium of $100 for an essay upon the nature and sources of the Malaria or noxious Miasma, from which originate the family of diseases usually known by the denomination of bilious diseases; together with the best means of preventing the formation of Malaria, removing the sources, and obviating their effects upon the human constitution when the cause cannot be removed.

The committee have been induced to call the attention of the profession to this subject, because of its vast importance to society at large. The immense extent to which this fruitful cause of disease operates, has not yet been accurately calculated, nor any probable estimation made of the mortality which it occasions.

The public attention has not been directed to other subjects of general importance, but we believe an adequate effort has yet been made to awaken and direct the public mind to the prevention of the evils dependent upon Malaria, although it is well known to medical men to be extending its influence, and threatening to depopulate some of the finest sections of this country, as it has already depopulated some of the fairest portions of the old world.

Candidates for the prize are to cause their dissertations to be delivered to the subscriber, in Baltimore, (postage paid), on or before the first day of May 1831. Each dissertation to be accompanied by a sealed letter, superscribed with a motto corresponding with that prefixed to the essay. None of the letters, except that to be affixed, will be opened; the other essays shall be disposed of according to the direction of the proprietors.

HENRY W. BAXLEY, Secretary to the Committee. July 20

THE INDIANS.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 1.—Information from Franklin, which may be relied on, gives assurance that there is every prospect of the conclusion of a treaty with the Chickasaw Nation, a delegation from which has been at Franklin since the 20th ult. On Friday evening last the President left them, having confided the negotiation and arrangement of the treaty to the Secretary of War and Gen. Coffee. The President, we understand, will depart for Washington this week. Before leaving Franklin, he was informed through the Agent, that the Chickasaw friends desired to see and bid him farewell previous to his departure. In half an hour after he met them at the Masonic Hall, where being surrounded by the Chiefs, a most interesting interview took place amidst a crowd of persons who were present to witness it.

The President, with the Secretary of War and General Coffee having arrived, took their position within the centre of a square occupied by the Chiefs. Having shaken hands with him, one of them handed a paper to Major Eaton, which they requested him to read to their great Father.—It was as follows:

FRANKLIN, TENN. AUG. 27, 1830. To our great Father the President.

Your red children, the Chick and head men of the Chickasaw, have had under consideration the talk of our Father, and also, the talk delivered to us by the commissioners, Major Eaton and Gen. Coffee.

The subject submitted for our consideration is to us of great importance. On the decision we this day make and declare to you and the world, depends our fate as a nation and as a people.

Father, you say that you have travelled a long way to talk to your red children. We have listened—and your words have sunk deep into our hearts. As you are about to set out for Washington City—before we shake our Father's hand, perhaps with many of us for the last time—we have requested this meeting, to tell you, that after sleeping upon the talk you sent us, and the talk delivered to us by our brothers, Major Eaton and Gen. Coffee, we are now ready to enter into a treaty based upon the principles communicated to us by Major Eaton and General Coffee.

Your friends and Brothers. (Signed &c.)

The President promptly replied—he told them of the great pleasure and satisfaction he had enjoyed in seeing them. Some of them had been long known to him, and he assured them that their long continued friendship had not been, and would not be, interrupted. He was about, he said, to separate from them, and to return to his public duties at Washington, and that he hoped, that his earnest hope was, that the Great Spirit above would take care of, bless, and preserve them. He then turned and bade them an affectionate farewell. One of the principal Chiefs rushed forward and grasping him with both hands, exclaimed, "God bless you, my great Father," and overcame by his feelings turned away.—The President and Chiefs were much affected, and the whole house manifested a sensible and lively emotion at the interesting interview, and separation of this distinguished man from our red brothers.—It was indeed a scene of the deepest interest, to see these heavy chiefs—untutored sons of the forest—about to separate from a man so long known to them, and by them so much beloved;—under circumstances, too, which brought to their minds, that they were about to leave the land of their youth, and the homes of their fathers, and to be separated from their friends, and to be separated from their friends, and to be separated from their friends.

Brothers.—The law of Congress usually called the "Intercourse Act" has been resorted to, to afford relief, but in many instances has failed of success. Our white population has so extended around in every direction, that difficulties and troubles are to be expected. Can not this state of things be prevented? Your firm determination can only do it.

Brothers.—There is no unkindness in the offers made to you. No intention or wish to force you from your lands, but rather to intimate to you what is your own interest. The attachment you feel for the soil which covers the bones of your ancestors is well known. Our forefathers had the same feeling when a long time ago, to obtain happiness, they left their lands beyond the great waters, and sought a new and quiet home in distant and unexplored regions. If they had not done so where would have been their children and the prosperity they now enjoy? The old world would scarcely have afforded support for a people, who, by the change their fathers made, have become prosperous and happy. In future time, so will it be with your children. Old men! Arouse to energy and lead your children to a land of promise and of peace before the Great Spirit shall call you to die. Young Chiefs! Forget the prejudices you feel for the soil of your birth, and go to a land where you can preserve your people as a nation. Peace invites you there—anywhere will be left behind within your limits, no State or Territory, and no authority will be permitted to intrude, traders, and above all, ardent spirits, so destructive to health and morals, will be kept from among you, only as the laws and ordinances of your nation may sanction their admission. And that the week may not be assailed by their stronger and more powerful neighbors, care shall be taken and stipulations made that the United States, by arms if necessary, will preserve and maintain peace amongst the tribes, and guard them from the assaults of enemies of every kind, whether white or red.

Brothers listen!—These things are for your serious consideration, and it behoves you well to think of them. The present is the time you are asked to do so. Reject the opportunity which is now offered to obtain comfortable homes, and the time may soon pass away, when such advantages as are now within your reach may not again be presented. If you do not, the course you now pursue, shall be the course you will follow, and you shall be hereafter to relieve you of your troubles, but make up your minds conclusively, to remain upon the lands you occupy, and be subject to the laws of the State where you now reside to the same extent that her own citizens are. In a few years, by becoming amalgamated with the whites, your national character will be lost, and then like other tribes who have gone before you, you must disappear and be forgotten.

Brothers.—If you are disposed to remove, say so, and state the terms you may consider just and equitable. Your Great Father is ready and has instructed his commissioners to admit such as shall be considered liberal, to the extent that he can calculate the Senate of the United States will sanction.—Terms of any other character it would be useless for you to insist upon, as without their consent and approval no arrangement to be made could prove effectual. Should you determine to remain where you are, candidly say so, and let us be done with the subject, no more to be talked of again. But if disposed to remove, present the terms on which you are willing to do so, to my friends, the Secretary of War and Gen. John Coffee, who are authorized to confer with you, and who in the arrangements to be made, will act candidly, fairly and liberally towards you.

ANDREW JACKSON.

THE CHOCTAWS.—We understand from good authority that the President of the United States, at the request of the Indians, has appointed the 15th day of September to open a negotiation with the Choctaw nation at Dancing Rabbit Creek near the agency. General Coffee and his Excellency. General Carroll will, on the part of the United States. The Secretary of War, it is also said, will be present on the occasion to assist in forming a treaty. We are glad to hear this, as he must be better informed of the views and policy of the Executive, than any other individual, however well qualified and capable, could be.

Easton Female Academy.

MRS. SCULL respectfully informs the Parents and Guardians of youth in Talbot, and the adjacent counties, that the duties of said Seminary, will be resumed on the 13th of September next, wherein will be taught the usual courses of Literature, viz.—Orthography, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography, (ancient and modern) History, Composition, Plain and Ornamental Needle Work, &c. &c.

Those who may think proper to patronize this institution, may be assured that every exertion will be made to facilitate the moral and literary progress of those entrusted to the care of the instructress.
