FOR SALE.

THAT well known and valuable farm late the property of Geo. W. Nabb, Esq. called "Bridgewater," sometimes known by the name of Turner's farm, adjoining the Mill recently owned by the late Arthur Holt, Esq. This farm contains 620 acres of land or thereabout; has on it a new and very commodious DWELLING, completely finished, ordinary farm buildings, and a pretty good APPLE ORCHARD. A portion of the land is in a tolerable state of cultivation, the ballance poor, but of that quality of soil which is susceptible of the highest state of improvement. On the farm is an abundant supply of VALUABLE TIMBER, a very large and extensive meadow, which might be put in excellent order at little expense, with inexhaustible funds of marl. To an enterprising, industrious man, few farms on the Eastern Shore present an opportunity for more profitable investment of a small capital. It will be sold at public sale on TUESDAY the 17th of May next, at the Court House door in Easton, on a liberal credit, which will be made known on the day of sale.

The schooner Ariel will be commanded by Capt. Thomas P. Townsend, who is well known for his industry and sobriety, and with whom I have no doubt the public will be pleased. JOHN OF ROANOKE.

THE Trustees of the Maryland Agricultural Society for the Eastern Shore, with the view of purchasing a Stallion of the first order, as well for their own accommodation, as to improve the breed of that noble animal throughout the Eastern Shore, by letting him to mares on such terms as would enable every farmer who had a good brood mare, to avail himself of his services, have, for some time past held a correspondence with some of the most distinguished breeders of horses in the country, and after examining the characters and qualities of the many valuable stallions recommended to their attention, have purchased and offer to the public the celebrated horse

JOHN OF ROANOKE.

THIS horse is a beautiful mahogany bay, sixteen hands high, and combines beauty of form, with great strength, fine action, and perfect docility of temper. To the lovers of fine horses for the turf, saddle, or quick draft, they feel much pleasure in recommending him, being confident that no judge can see and not admire him.
This horse, with his dam, was purchased by General Callender Irvine of Philadelphia, from the Hon. John Randolph of Virginia; his pedigree will be seen to be equal to that of any horse of the country, by the following extract from the letter of Gen. Irvine to the board of Trustees:
"He was foaled the 19th of March 1824, is in colour a beautiful bay, having a satin-like coat, with a small star and snip, black mane and tail, and legs—tail full and long and well set on. He measures within a fraction of 16 hands high, by a proper standard, without shoes, and would be rated, as stallions are usually measured 16 hands. He is in fine form, strong at all points, of great action and is fit for all kinds of service; turf, saddle, coach, and even for the wagon. John of Roanoke is now just in his prime, having always been well taken care of. He is a remarkably healthy horse, never having been sick to my knowledge, for a moment since he was foaled, excepting with the colt's distemper. He is a vigorous stallion, and a remarkably sure and capital foal getter. His colts are large, in fine form, and generally bays. That he is a thorough bred horse, of blood equal to that of any horse of this or any other country, (and there is no mistake about it, a matter of some moment to breeders), will appear by his pedigree, which is as follows:—
"Dam, Grand Duchess, (bred by John Randolph, Esq. of Va. of whom I purchased her) got by Gracchus; grand dam Duchess (imported by Mr. Randolph) bred by the Duke of Grafton, got by Grouse, son of Highflyer, out of Georgiana, own sister to Conductor and Alfred, by Matchem; Magnet; sister to Johnny, by Matchem, Babraham, &c. &c.
"John of Roanoke was got by Mr. Randolph's elegant horse Roanoke, he by the far famed Sir Archy, out of his imported mare Lady Bunbury, bred by Sir Charles Bunbury, who also bred Highflyer, and the imported old Diomed, sire of Sir Archy, by Trumpetor, grand dam Thesphia, by Highflyer, g. grand dam, Plaything, by Matchem, g. g. grand dam Vixen, by Regulus, he by the Godolphian Arabian.
"Gracchus, sire of Grand Duchess, dam of John of Roanoke, was got by old Diomed, out of Cornelia, by Chanticleer; Vanity by Cœler; Mark Anthony; Jolly Roger, &c.—Thus you see there cannot be better blood in all its rammifications; and what is of great importance in the blood horse, all the progeny of this mare, Grand Duchess, are large, strong, in good form, of good action, and like their ancestors, Diomed, Sir Archy, Highflyer and King Herod, are healthy and stout, and suitable for all kinds of work. I have bred five colts from this mare, all of which are large and have fine constitutions.
JOHN OF ROANOKE
Will stand at Easton—Terms twelve dollars for the spring's chance, payable on or before the first day of September next, and eighteen dollars to insure a mare to be in foal, payable on the first day of February next.—When mares are insured if they are parted with before it is ascertained whether or not they are in foal, the persons putting them to the horse will be charged with the amount of insurance. Fifty cents to the groom in every case, to be paid during the season.

Extract of a letter from Gen. Irvine, dated

"You have inquired about John of Roanoke's full sister—She is called Hipponia. The fall of 1827, Hipponia won the Jockey Club Purse, 4 mile heats, at Washington, 400 dollars, beating Louisa Savary, by Ratler, and Cornwallis. (It is stated that Louisa Savary was never beaten, but by Hipponia.)
"Same fall Hipponia won the 3 mile heats at Winchester, Va.; also the 3 mile heats at Culpepper, Va.; the longest distances at these places."
