NOTICE.
THE Subscriber having served an apprenticeship, to the Black and White Smith business, connected with the making and repairing of Steam Engines, proposes, if encouraged by the inhabitants of Easton and its vicinity to establish at Easton point, a Steam Mill, of eight horse power, to drive two pair of stones, of between 36 and 36 inches diameter, calculated to grind 150 bushels per day.
It is believed a mill of the above description, by attaching the Machinery to a granary on the Wharf, which can be purchased may be erected, with the necessary apparatus for $1500.
The subscriber proposes to attend to the mill as engineer and to engage a first rate miller, well acquainted with the business; and invites the attention of the public, to the above scheme. It is proposed to have the $1500, divided into shares of $20, making 75 shares of $20 each.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT
28th March, 1831.
PERSONS intending to apply for the benefit of the act entitled "An act for the relief of certain insolvent debtors of the United States," are hereby notified that the persons entitled to relief under said act are those who were insolvent on or before the 1st day of Junuary, 1831, and were indebted to the United States in a sum of money then due which they are unable to pay, and who are not indebted as the principal on an official bond, or for public money received and not paid over or accounted for according to law, or for any fine, forfeiture or penalty incurred by the violation of any law of the United States. Applications for a release or discharge under the act must be made in writing, under oath or affirmation, and forwarded to the Secretary of the Treasury, stating, as near as may be, the time when the applicant became insolvent, and when he made his insolvency known to his creditors, the causes of such insolvency, and the amount thereof; and also the estate, real and personal, owned at the time of such insolvency, with a description of the same; and also the manner in which such estate has been disposed of, that is to say, by furnishing a list of the insolvent's creditors at the time of his insolventy, with the amount then due to each; the sums since paid and the balances still remaining due to them respectively, also the sums since paid and balances remaining due to other persons not creditors at the time aforesaid; and what estate or property, if any, owned at the time of his becoming insolvent, or which he has since acquired a right to, has been conveyed or transferred to any other person, with intent to be applied directly or indirectly to the use or benefit of such insolvent or his family; and also a statement of all the estate, if any, and the disposition and condition thereof, which he has since owned or still owns. It may be observed, that the statement aforesaid should be confined exclusively to facts, and arranged in as simple and intelligible a form as possible, unaccompanied by argument or prolix narrative.
As all the facts upon which the decision of the Secretary of the Treasury is to be made, must be previously examined and reported upon by the Commissioners, no communication other than the application referred to in the first section of the act can be received at the Department, except through the channel of
S. D. INGHAM,
Secretary of the Treasury.

WAR DEPARTMENT.
Washington, Nov. 17, 1830.
PENSION AND BOUNTY LAND REGU-LATION.
THE many impositions which are attempted in relation to Pension and Bounty Land Claims, has caused the Department of War to establish a regulation, which declares that no attention will in future, be given to applications from persons who act as Agents, unless they are known at the Department, or are voted for by respectable persons by some one who is known.
Notice of this regulation is hereby given; and that all may be informed thereof it is requested that publishers of the laws of the United States, in the respective States will insert the same, on the front page of their respective papers, for three months.
By order of the Secretary of War:

Virginia Tennessee Hunter.
THIS celebrated Horse will be let to mares this season, at the following reduced prices: Two dollars and fifty cents the single leap; Five dollars the chance of the season; which will end on the 20th of June next; when there are two mares or more put to from one farm there will be a deduction of fifty cents per mare; and in all cases where the money is paid by the first day of October next, there will be a deduction of fifty cents on the single leap; and one dollar on the springs chance.
The price to ensure a mare in foal will be eight dollars, payable on the 1st day of February next.
Twenty-five cents to be paid to the groom in each case.
This fine horse is in great stud condition, and is handled by a first rate groom.
NIMROD BARWICK.
Virginia Tennessee Hunter, is a dark Brown, seven years old this spring, full sixteen hands high, lofty carriage and his movement equal to any horse; he was foaled in Warren county, Tennessee; at four years old he was taken to Bradford county where he remained for two seasons, and proved himself a sure foal getter and his stock promise fair to be valuable. Tennessee Hunter, his sire was the noted Decatur Hero, who was got by the noted Decatur, who was got by the celebrated horse old Messenger, a full bred racer. Decatur's dam was got by the noted horse Figure, his grand dam by old Rockingham, Hero's dam was got by the imported horse Cub, his grand dam Highlan-der. Tennessee Hunter's dam was got by the Virginia horse Florez, his grand dam by the imported horse Yorkshire, great grand dam by the imported horse Rockingham.
A further description is thought unnecessary, as the size of the horse, colour, bone and sinew will recommend him to any gentleman.

Magistrate's Blanks, generally, Deeds, of approved form, Negotiable and Vendue Notes, FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

FOR SALE.
THAT well known and valuable farm late of the property of Geo. W. Nabb, Esq. called "Bridgewater," sometimes known by the name of Turner's farm, adjoining the Mill recently owned by the late Arthur Holl, Esq. This farm contains 620 acres of land or thereabout; has on it a new and very commodious DWELLING, completely finished, ordinary farm buildings, and a pretty good APPLE ORCHARD. A portion of the land is in a tolerable state of cultivation, the balance poor, but of that quality of soil which is susceptible of the highest state of improvement. On the farm is an abundant supply of VALUABLE TIMBER, a very large and extensive meadow, which might be put in excellent order at little expense, with inexhaustible funds of marl. To an enterprising, industrious man, few farms on the Eastern Shore present an opportunity for more profitable investment of a small capital. It will be sold at public sale on TUES-DAY the 17th of May next, at the Court House door in Easton, on a liberal credit, which will be made known on the day of sale.
For further particulars inquire of RICHARD SPENCER,
in Easton.

EASTON PACKET.
THE subscriber takes the liberty of informing the public that he has taken the Granary and wharf of Messrs. Kerr and Goldstough, as also that new substantial and fast sailing boat,
The Schooner ARIEL, which he intends running as a regular packet from this place to Baltimore. The ARIEL will leave Easton Point every Wednesday morning, at nine o'clock, A. M. returning will leave Baltimore on every Saturday morning at the same hour.
The Ariel is now in complete order for the reception of freights and passengers, and can go to any port from Baltimore as quick as any sailing boat that sails our bay; as I have been employed for the last six years in the pack-eting business from this place, I flatter myself that it will be in my power to give general satisfaction to all freighters that may entrust their freights to me. The schooner Ariel will be commanded by Capt. Thomas P. Townsend, who is well known for his industry and sobriety, and with whom I have no doubt the public will be pleased. All orders given to the subscriber, or left at Doctor Thomas H.
Dawson's Drug Store, in Easton, will be faithfully attended to,
The public's obedient servant,
SAMUEL H. BENNY.
March 8

TO THE PUBLIC.
As we are measurably strangers to the people of Talbot county, we take the liberty of thus communicating our wishes and propositions to them. Our VESSELS are now in complete order for the reception of GRAIN, or other articles, on freight to Baltimore, on the following terms, viz:
Wheat 6 cts. Flaxseed 6 cts.
Corn 6 Oats 5 cts.
Rye 6 per bushel.
And in order to guarantee to the shipper, at all times, the highest price for his produce, we intend to consign the same to an old established commission merchant, and will pay at our own expense the commission and measure. We will also bring to our freighters, all articles they may wish, free of freight—Hogsheads, Bricks, Plank, and similar heavy articles excepted, which shall be moderate.
The public may most positively be assured that our unremitting endeavors shall be involved to do them strict justice, and facilitate their interest, in whatever business they may feel disposed to trust us with.
We therefore respectfully ask them for a small trial at first, as "deeds speak louder than words." As we have been in the shipping business for six years, from one place, we beg leave to refer you to the respectable gentlemen whose names are inserted below. Our Granaries, at Kingston and Dover bridge, shall be in good order, and bags left for the use of the freighters with the Granary keeper; Mr.
Tilghman Chance, at Kingston. The receipts of deposits by Mr. James Meloney, at the same place, who will also take memorandums, for all goods, that may be ordered by the freighters from Baltimore, and receive the funds or proceeds of the produce so freighted, and pay them over when demanded. Also Capt. Thos. Case, whose integrity, steady habits and obliging turn are well known by the undersigned gentlemen, will take grain on board from all the landings, on Talbot side, from Tuckahoe Creek to Oxford, and the proceeds (if the shippers reside contiguous to the water) returned to them, or deposited in Easton according to their advice.

The Beautiful Spotted Horse
YOUNG DIOMEAD.
Commenced the season on the 24th inst. he will be at Easton on Tuesday the 6th of April, in Ferry Neck on Wednesday and Thursday, and at St. Michaels on Friday and Saturday, the week following. He will be at Denton on Tuesday and Wednesday, at Hillsborough on Thursday, and the residue of the time at the Subscriber's stable, and will attend the above stands once in two weeks throughout the season. Season commenced on the 24th instant and will end the 20th of June.— He will be let to mares at $5 the Spring's chance, $21 the single leap, and $8 to insure a mare in foal. No insurance only by special contract with the subscriber, and in each case 25 cents to the groom. Diomead is 7 years old this spring, and is pronounced by the best judges to be a horse, of beautiful form, fine bone, sinews of great strength, and fine action; the strength of the dray and activity of the sprightly saddle horse are united in him, which added to his beauty, promises the useful, elegant, and valuable horse, either for the saddle or harness. His pedigree may be seen in handbills.

Cambridge and Easton alternatly—commencing at Cambridge on Monday and Tuesday the 4th and 5th of April—will be at the subscriber's stable near Easton, on Monday and Tuesday the 11th and 12th inst., and attend each of the above stands once in two weeks throughout the season.
TERMS:
$3 dollars the Spring's chance, but 6 dollars will discharge the claim if paid by the 1st of October next—$12 to insure a mare in foal, which $10 will discharge if paid by the 1st of April, 1832—for further particulars, pedigree, &c. see bills.

April 12

JOHN OF ROANOKE
THE Trustees of the Maryland Agricultural Society for the Eastern Shore, with the view of purchasing a Stallion of the first order, as well for their own accommodation, as to improve the breed of that noble animal throughout the Eastern Shore, by letting him to mares on such terms as would enable every farmer who had a good brood mare, to avail himself of his services, have, for some time past held a correspondence with some of the most distinguished breeders of horses in the country, and after examining the characters and qualities of the many valuable stallions recommended to their attention, have purchased and offer to the public the celebrated horse
JOHN OF ROANOKE.
THIS horse is a beautiful ma-hogony bay, a xteen hands high, and combines beauty of form, with great strength, fine action, and perfect docility of temper. To the lovers of fine horses for the turf, saddle, or quick draft, they feel much pleasure in recommending him, being confident that no judge can see and not admire him.
This horse, with his dam, was purchased by General Callender Irvine of Philadelphia, from the Hon. John Randolph of Virginia; his pedigree will be seen to be equal to that of any horse of the country, by the following extract from the letter of Gen. Irvine to the board of Trustees:
"He was foaled the 19th of March 1824, is in colour a beautiful bay, having a satin like coat, with a small star and snip, black mane and tail, and legs—tail full and long and well set on. He measures within a fraction of 16 hands high, by a proper standard, without shoes, and would be rated, as stallions are usually measured 16 hands. He is in fine form, strong at all points, of great action and is fit for all kinds of service; turf, saddle, coach, and even for the wagon. John of Roanoke is now just in his prime, having always been well taken care of. He is a remarkably healthy horse, never having been sick to my knowledge, for a moment since he was foaled, excepting with the colic's distemper. He is a vigorous stallion, and a remarkably sure and capital foal getter. His colts are large, in fine form, and generally bays. That he is a through bred horse, of blood equal to that of any horse of this or any other country, (and there is no mistake about it, a matter of some moment to breeders), will appear by his pedigree, which is as follows:—
"Dan, Grand Duchess, (bred by John Randolph, Esq. of Va. of whom I purchase her) got by Gracchus; grand dam Duchess (imported by Mr. Randolph) bred by the Duke of Grafton, got by Grouse, son of Highflyer, out of Georgiana, own sister to Conductor and Alfred, by Matchem; Magnet, sister to Johnny, by Matchem, Abraham, &c. &c.
"John of Roanoke was got by Mr. Randolph's elegant horse Roanoke, he by the far famed Sir Archy, out of his imported mare Lady Bunbury, bred by Sir Charles Bunbury, who also bred Highflyer, and the imported old Diomed, sire of Sir Archy, by Trumpeter, grand dam Theobia, by Highflyer; g. grand dam Plaything, by Matchem; g. g. grand dam Virginia, by Regulus, he by the Godolphin Arabian.
"Gracchus, sire of Grand Duchess, dam of John of Roanoke, was got by old Diomed, out of Cornelia, by Chanticleer; Vanity by Coker; Mark Anthony; Jolly Roger, &c.— Thus you see there cannot be better blood in all its ramifications; and what is of great importance in the blood horse, all the progeny of this mare, Grand Duchess, are large, strong, in good form, of good action, and like their ancestors, Diomed, Sir Archy, Highflyer and King Herod, are healthy and stout, and suitable for all kinds of work. I have bred five colts from this mare, all of which are large and have fine constitutions.
Will stand at Easton—Terms twelve dollars for the spring's chance, payable on or before the first day of September next, and eighteen dollars to insure a mare to be foal, payable on the first day of February next.
When mares are insured if they are parted with before it is ascertained whether or not they are in foal, the persons putting them to the horse will be charged with the amount of insurance. Fifty cents to the groom in every case, to be paid during the season.

N. B. Mares from a distance will be furnished with good pasturage, and grain if requested, on moderate terms, but no damages will be allowed for estrays or accidental injuries.
Extract of a letter from Gen. Irvine, dated PHILADELPHIA, March 28th, 1831.
"You have inquired about John of Roan-oke's full sister—She is called Hipponia. The fall of 1827, Hipponia won the Jockey Club Purse, 4 mile heats, at Washington, 400 dollars, beating Louisa Savary, by Ratler, and Cornwallis. (It is stated that Louisa Savary was never beaten, but by Hipponia.) "Same fall Hipponia won the 3 mile heats at Winchester, Va.; also the 3 mile heats at Culpepper, Va.; the longest distances at these places."

CASH FOR NEGROES
THE subscriber agent for Austin Woolfolk of Baltimore, takes this method of acknowledging the many preferences in the purchase of negroes, and wishes the citizens of the Eastern Shore to still continue their preference to him for
FOR ONE HUNDRED
NEGROES,
from the age of twelve to twenty five years, will give higher prices than any real purchaser that is now in the market, or may hereafter come. Any person having negroes, of the above ages, will do well in giving the preference to

WHITE HALL.
THE Subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public generally, that he has lately moved from the Centreville Hotel, to the newly repaired and commodious building, "WHITE HALL."
It gives him pleasure to say that from the conveniences his present establishment afford he will be enabled to extend to travellers, comforts hitherto beyond his power. The House to which he invites them, will in a very short time be in such repair as must ensure every luxury that can belong to good parlors, and to convenient lodging Rooms. His Bar is furnished with the very best liquors of every description, and his table with the most choice meats and dainties that the market of his portion of the country can supply. For Strangers, who may wish to travel to other parts of the Peninsula, he has good carriages and horses that can always be had at a moment's notice. For the Farmers, he has received from a liberal public, and his friends, he asks to be allowed to offer his thanks with a hope, that his attention to their accommodation, will in future be crowned with greater satisfaction to himself than heretofore.
FRANCIS ARLETT.
Centreville, Jan. 15.

The Editors of the Eastern Gazette, Eastern Shore Whig, Kent Inquirer, Baltimore Patriot and Saturday Evening Post, Philadelphia will please to publish the above notice for three months, and send their accounts to the Editor of the Centreville Times for collection.

CENTREVILLE HOTEL.
THE subscriber begs leave to inform his
moved from the Head of Chester, Kent county, Md. where he has been engaged for many years in keeping a Public House, and has the gratifying assurance of his friends and customers in that place, and of those travelling through, who favored him with a call, that heretofore, he has given general satisfaction.
He has taken that large and commodious house, QUEEN ANN'S county, so well known as the CENTREVILLE HOTEL, near the Court House, and in a most pleasant part of the Town, where he shall be pleased to receive a liberal share of the patronage of the public; and assures them that no exertion on his part shall be wanting to give general satisfaction. Private parties can always be accommodated; and every exertion will be made to make all comfortable that give him a call.
The public's obedient and humble servant,
JAMES BRADSHAW.

J. B. STAGES will run regularly for the accommodation of Passengers to and from the Steam Boats, Maryland and Wolcott; passengers carried to any part of the adjacent counties at a moment's notice.

UNION TAVERN.
EASTON, MARYLAND.
1831.
THE Subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from Cambridge, Dorchester county, where he has been engaged for nearly twelve years in keeping a public house, and has the gratifying assurance of his friends and customers in that place, as well as those traveling through, who favoured him with a call that heretofore he has given general satisfaction.
He has taken that large and commodious house in Easton, Talbot county, so well known as the Union Tavern, on the corner of Washington and Goldsborough streets, immediately opposite the Bank, in the most fashionable and pleasant part of the town, within a few steps of the Court House, and immediately adjoining the office of the Hon. John Leeds Kerr, and nearly opposite to that of the Hon. William Hayward, Jun.
He is still further gratified in assuring the public that he has many advantages that he never before had, viz: A much more splendid house, and a market equal to any for a like population, in the world, and with his knowledge of his business, and a disposition to please, he flatters himself he shall receive a liberal share of the patronage of the public.
Private parties can always be accommodated, and every exertion will be made to make all comfortable that give him a call.
The public's obedient and humble servant,
WILLIAM C. RIDGAWAY.

W. C. R.'s STAGES will run to the wharf regularly for the accommodation of passengers from and to the Steamboat Maryland—Passengers carried to any part of the adjacent country at a moment's notice.
