

SHERIFF'S SALE.

BY virtue of a writ of fieri facias, issued out of Talbot county Court, and to me directed and delivered, by the clerk thereof, at the instance of the State of Maryland, at the instance and for the use of William Arringdale, administrator, D. B. N. with the will annexed, of John Garey, against Isaac Chambers, Jas. Chambers, and John D. Green, will be sold for cash, at the front door of the court-house, in the town of Easton, in Talbot county, on TUESDAY, the 13th day of July next, between the hours of 10 o'clock, A. M. and 6 o'clock, P. M. of said day, the following property, that is to say:—All the right in reversion, of the said Isaac Chambers, of, in and upon all the Lands mentioned and contained in a conveyance bond, of a certain Joseph Turner, of Talbot county, to a certain William Warwick, the grandfather of Jesse Scott and Henry Scott, bearing date the 23d day of March, 1795, and which afterwards were devised by the said William Warwick, in and by his last will and testament, to his daughter Lydia Scott, and her heirs forever; and which after the death of the aforesaid Lydia Scott, fell, by hereditary descent, to the aforesaid Jesse Scott and Henry Scott and the other children of the aforesaid Lydia; that is to say:—All those parts of two tracts of land called Orem's Delight and Turner's Resurvey, situate, lying and being in Talbot county, aforesaid, that lies to the eastward of the main road leading from the three bridges to Williamsburg, containing one hundred and five acres of land more or less, only excepting therefrom about one acre of land, which had been sold to Michael Kerby, and comprehended in a small slip to the northward of the beginning boundary of a tract of land called the Forest of Judyke, as will more fully appear by having reference to the said conveyance bond, bearing date as aforesaid, the 23d day of March 1795. And also all the right, in reversion, of the said Isaac Chambers, of, in and upon the tract of land called Turner's Discovery, situate lying and being in the county aforesaid and on the said eastward side of the main road aforesaid, and adjoining the lands aforesaid, be the quantity, on the said side of the main road aforesaid, what it may. All seized and taken into execution, and will be sold as above stated, for cash, to the highest bidder, to pay and satisfy the above named writ of fieri facias and the damages, costs and charges due and to become due thereon. Attendance by J. M. FAULKNER, Shff.

TO THE PUBLIC.

As we are measurably strangers to the people of Talbot county, we take the liberty of this communication, to our wishes and propositions to them. Our WISHLIST is now in complete order for the receipt of GRAIN, or other articles, on freight to Baltimore, on the following terms, viz:

Wheat	6 cts.	Flaxseed	6 cts.
Corn	6	Oats	5 cts.
Rye	6		per bushel.

And in order to guarantee to the shipper, at all times, the highest price for his produce, we intend to consign the same to an old established COMMISSION MERCHANT, and will pay at our own expense the commission and measure. We will also bring to our freighters, all articles they may wish, free of freight—Hogsheads, Bricks, Plank, and similar heavy articles excepted, which shall be moderate. The public may most positively be assured that our unremitting endeavors shall be directed to do them strict justice, and facilitate their interest, in whatever business they may feel disposed to entrust us with. We therefore, respectfully ask them for a small trial at first, as "deeds speak louder than words." As we have been in the shallop business for six years, from one place, we beg leave to refer you to the respectable gentlemen whose names are inserted below. Our companies, at Kingston and Dover bridge, shall be in good order, and bags left for the use of the freighter with the Granary keeper, Mr. Pughman Chance, at Kingston. The receipts of deposits by Mr. James Meloney, at the same place, who will also take memorandums, for all goods, that may be ordered by the freighters from Baltimore, and receive the funds or proceeds of the produce so freighted, and pay them over when demanded. Also Captain Thomas Case, whose integrity, steady habits and obliging turn are well known by the undersigned gentlemen, will take grain on board from any of the landings, on Talbot side, from Tuckahoe Creek to Oxford, and the proceeds (if the shippers reside contiguous to the water) returned to them, or deposited in Easton according to their advice. The public's obedient servant,
JOHN R. WRIGHT, Agent.

Methodist Protestant CAMP MEETING.
A Camp Meeting of the Methodist Protestants Church for Queen Ann's, Caroline and Talbot Circuit, is appointed to be held about 23 Miles from Easton, on the lands of Samuel Colston Esq. to commence on Friday the 22d of July next, and end on the Wednesday following. The place fixed upon, offers many facilities of convenience and comfort. A Spring of water, of the very first quality, affording an ample supply for all purposes, is within a few yards of the ground, which is high and sloping; with an excellent shade. Vessels of large size may come to Dover Bridge, within 1 mile, and those of less size within less than half a mile of the camp, to which there are fine roads leading in several directions, and good pasturage and accommodations for Horses (which will be well attended to) very convenient. All the members of our church, and all our friends that are not members, and the public generally, who can make it convenient to have tents, or attend the said meeting, are invited to do so. Several Ministers from a distance are expected to be present.

UNION TAVERN,
EASTON, MARYLAND.
1831.

THE Subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from Cambridge, Dorchester county, where he has been engaged for several years in keeping a public house, and has the gratifying assurance of his friends and customers in that place, as well as those travelling through, who favoured him with a call that heretofore he has given general satisfaction. He has taken that large and commodious house in Easton, Talbot county, so well known as the Union Tavern, on the corner of Washington and Goldsborough streets, immediately opposite the Bank, in the most fashionable and pleasant part of the town, within a few steps of the Court House, and immediately adjoining the office of the Hon. John Leeds Kerr, and nearly opposite to that of the Hon. William Hayward, Jun.
He is still further gratified in assuring the public that he has many advantages that he never before had, viz: A much more splendid house, and a market equal to any for a like population, in the world, and with his knowledge of his business, and a disposition to please, he flatters himself he shall receive a liberal share of the patronage of the public. Private parties can always be accommodated, and every exertion will be made to make all comfortable that give him a call.
The public's obedient and humble servant,
WILLIAM C. RIDGAWAY.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT
28th March, 1831.

PERSONS intending to apply for the benefit of the act entitled "An act for the relief of certain insolvent debtors of the United States," are hereby notified that the persons entitled to relief under said act are those who were insolvent on or before the 1st day of January, 1831, and were indebted to the United States in a sum of money then due which they are unable pay, and who are not indebted as the principal on an official bond, or for public money received and not paid over or accounted for according to law, or for any fine, forfeiture or penalty incurred by the violation of any law of the United States. Applications for a release or discharge under the act must be made in writing, under oath or affirmation, and forwarded to the Secretary of the Treasury, stating, as near as may be, the time when the applicant became insolvent, and when he made his insolvency known to his creditors, the causes of such insolvency, and the amount thereof; and also the estate, real and personal, owned at the time of such insolvency, with a description of the same; and also the manner in which such estate has been disposed of, that is to say, by furnishing a list of the insolvent's creditors at the time of his insolvency, with the amount then due to each; the sums since paid and the balances still remaining due to them respectively, also the sums since paid and balances remaining due to other persons not creditors at the time aforesaid; and what estate or property, if any, owned at the time of his becoming insolvent, or which he has since acquired a right to, has been conveyed or transferred to any other person, with intent to be applied directly or indirectly to the use or benefit of such insolvent or his family; and also a statement of all the estate, if any, and the disposition and condition thereof, which he has since owned or still owns. It may be observed, that the statement aforesaid should be confined exclusively to facts, and arranged in as simple and intelligible a form as possible, unaccompanied by argument or prolix narrative.
As all the facts upon which the decision of the Secretary of the Treasury is to be made, must be previously examined and reported upon by the Commissioners, no communication other than the application referred to in the first section of the act, can be received at the Department, except through that channel.
S. D. INGHAM,
Secretary of the Treasury.
April 19 3m—(2d Aug.)
The Eastern Shore Whig, (Easton,) will please copy the above.

NOTICE.
THE Subscriber having served an apprenticeship, to the Black and White Smith business, connected with the making and repairing of Steam Engines, proposes, if encouraged by the inhabitants of Easton and its vicinity to establish at Easton point, a Steam Mill, of eight horse power, to drive two pair of stones, of between 33 and 36 inches diameter, calculated to grind 150 bushels per day. It is believed a mill of the above description, by attaching the Machinery to a granary on the Wharf, (which can be procured) may be erected, with the necessary apparatus for $1500. The subscriber proposes to attend to the mill as engineer and to engage a first rate miller, well acquainted with the business; and invites the attention of the public, to the above scheme. It is proposed to have the $1500, divided into shares of $20, making 75 shares of 20 each.

The Beautiful Spotted Horse YOUNG DIOMEAD.
Commenced the season on the 24th inst. he will be at Easton on Tuesday the 6th of April, in the Ferry Neck on Wednesday and Saturday, and at St. Michaels on Friday and Saturday, the week following. He will be at Denton on Tuesday and Wednesday, at Hillsborough on Thursday, and the residue of the time at the Subscriber's stable, and will attend the above stands once in two weeks throughout the season. Season commenced on the 24th instant and will end the 20th of June.—He will be let to mares at $5 the Spring's chance, $24 the single leap, and $8 to insure a mare in foal. No insurance only by special contract with the subscriber, and in each case $5 cents to the groom. Diomead is 7 years of age, and is pronounced by the best judges to be a horse, of beautiful form, fine bone, sinews of great strength, and fine action; the strength of the dray and activity of the sprightly saddle horse are united in him, which added to his beauty, promises the useful, elegant, and valuable horse, either for the saddle or harness. His pedigree may be seen in handbills.

Skipton Packet.
THE subscriber takes the liberty of informing the public that he has taken the stand of his late brother, deceased.
THE SCHOONER MARGARET ELLEN, which he intends running as a regular packet from this place to Baltimore, will leave Skipton Granary every other Wednesday at 9 o'clock, A. M. calling the same evening at the subscriber's landing in the Bay-side, for freights or passengers—leaving Baltimore (D. vid Greaves), county wharf, Fell's Point, every other Wednesday, at the same hour, and calling at the subscriber's landing to deliver freights and passengers.
The Margaret Ellen is nearly new, and now in complete order for the reception of freights and passengers, and is a safe and comfortable vessel.
As my late brother has occupied the stand for many years, with considerable success, and his widow wishes still to continue it, she will take charge of the granary, and have it attended to by her nephew, John Bromwell. The granary will be put in complete order for the reception of grain and other freights. Orders, receipts, bills, and the proceeds of the freights, will be left by the captain or subscriber, with John Bromwell, clerk for
Mrs. McDANIEL, and JAMES McDANIEL.
I flatter myself that it will be in my power to give general satisfaction to all freighters who may entrust me with their business. The Margaret Ellen will be commanded by Capt. Peregrine Marshall, Jr. who is well known for his industry and sobriety, and with whom I have no doubt the public will be pleased.—Orders in Baltimore may be left with James Barroll, commission merchant, Botly's wharf, or David Greaves, county wharf, Fell's Point. Orders on this shore, will be received by John McDANIEL, Bay-side; or at the subscriber's Store—all which will be thankfully received and punctually attended to.
The public's obedient servant,
JAMES McDANIEL.
