PROSPECTUS
OF
THE EXAMINER,
A Daily and Tri Weekly Evening Newspaper.
To be published in the city of PHILADELPHIA.

WHAT idolatry is to the Church, man-worship is the State. The fatal rock upon which the liberties of the American People are to be dashed to pieces, is the abandonment of principles in a blind devotion to men. Within the last twenty years, all parties have been guilty of this political sin; and, unless its onward course be arrested at this awful crisis of our country's fate, all will be lost.

The discontinuance, on the last day of December, of "the Banner of the Constitution," published weekly for three years, under the editorial charge of the subscriber, has left the cause of STATE RIGHTS without a paper at the North, through which the great political questions which now agitate the land, can be discussed uninfluenced by personal or party considerations. The unexampled unanimity which has recently been proclaimed throughout the Middle and Northern States in favor of a consolidated government, has cast a deep gloom over the minds of the consistent few who remain true to the Republican faith of '98; and any attempt to effect, in that region, such a revolution as was accomplished by bringing into power Mr. Jefferson and his principles, would seem to be as hopeless as despair itself. Desperate, however, as it may appear, the attempt ought to be made, and if a liberal support be extended to this overture, IT SHALL BE MADE. The friends of Liberty and the Union, as guaranteed by the Constitution, in this quarter, are not disposed to abandon, without a further struggle, the glorious inheritance transmitted to them by their fathers; but being few in number, and surrounded by a population wholly adverse to their views, they can only maintain a press by the co operation of those who are more deeply interested than themselves in the preservation of the RESERVED RIGHTS OF THE STATES.

Should the reduction of the Tariff take place during the present session of Congress, it is highly probable that an effort will be made at the North, during the next few years, to restore it With this view, all the calamities which may be the result from overtrading, over-manufacturing, over-speculating, over-banking, and all other causes united, will be ascribed to the downfall of the American System; and the friends of Free Trade will find it no easy task to stand up against this probable reaction, in demonstrating to their fellow citizens the true causes of their suffering.

With the view of inviting the co operation above referred to, it has been resolved to propose the establishment of a Daily and Tri-weekly paper, in the City of Philadelphia, to be entitled "The Examiner," upon the following plan.

1. THE EXAMINER, will be a regular newspaper, and will be printed in newspaper form, of the well known size of the National Gazette. It will contain the usual supply of foreign and domestic news, commercial intelligence, and literary and miscellaneous selections expected in a daily newspaper. It will give copious extracts from the Proceedings of Congress, and will carefully preserve all the State papers and public documents of an important nature that may appear.

Political Economy, in all its branches, including Pauper Systems, Poor Laws, Civil and Criminal Jurisprudence, Banking, Currency, and all other matters of public concern, shall be freely discussed.

The affairs of South America will be frequently brought into view; and in reference to Brazil, there will be copious extracts from a manuscript journal kept by the Editor, during a residence of near five years in that country.

2. In its political department the Examiner will advocate the REPUBLICAN DOCTRINES OF '98, as set forth in the Virginia Resolutions and Legislative Report against the ALIEN and SEDITION LAWS; and maintained in "the times that tried men's souls," by Jefferson, Madison, M'Kean, and the othodox and distinguished champions of the Republican party.

3. It will consequently advocate, to use the language of Jefferson,

"A wise and frugal Government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned."

"Liberty of the Tongue—Liberty of the Press—Liberty of the Conscience—Liberty of the Hand."

"Freedom of Industry, as sacred as freedom of speech or of the press."

"Economy in the public expense, that labor may be lightly burdened."

"The support of the State Governments in all their rights as the most competent administrations of our domestic concerns."

"The preservation of the General Government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of our peace at home, and safety abroad."

"Peace, commerce, and honest friendship with all nations."

"Taxes—as many as are necessary, and no more; as long as necessary, and no longer;" and lastly,

"Equality of rights and duties, of benefits and burdens, as the basis of the Union."

4. It will oppose monopolies, special privileges, and sinecures, of every description, as interfering with the equality of rights upon which our institutions are founded, and will oppose, upon the ground of unconstitutionality, as well as of inexpediency, the establishment, by the Federal Government, of any National or Treasury Bank.

5. It will also oppose all wasteful expenditures, by the Federal Government, of the public money for Internal Improvements, upon the principle, that to the State Governments belongs the sole power to construct roads and canals, by their own means; or by the incorporation of companies. It will oppose all appropriations for objects not clearly within the delegated powers of Congress, and all usurpations of authority by any branch of the Federal Government.

6. It will also be opposed, and in an especial manner, to man-worship, the bane of Republics; and it will expose corruption and dereliction of principle in public servants, to whatever party they may profess to belong. This, however, it will do, in a mode which shall not degrade the press, and upon no occasion will the columns of the Examiner be the vehicle of scurrility or vulgar personal abuse.

7. The paper will be commenced as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers shall have been obtained to secure its permanent establishment, of which due notice will be given; and should this not take place before the first of May next, it will be abandoned.

Dr. SCUDDER'S
CELEBRATED EYE WATER,
For inflamation and weakness of the Eyes.

THE great advantages of this infallible remedy, places it as a general appendage to every family, and a constant vade-mecum to the traveller. This Eye Water is prepared with the greatest care, and has never been known to fail in effecting a speedy and safe Restoration of the diseased organs. It is useless to attach any certificates by way of praise or recommendation, the reputation and immense sale that has attended Dr. Scudder's Eye Water, being the fairest proof of its utility and beneficial tendency. It has been the means of preserving sight to many of the afflicted, from the helpless infant to the aged parent. Numerous letters have been received by Dr. S within these few years, containing flattering remarks relative to this Eye Water—and the cures effected by it, have been set forth as Wonderful beyond precedent. Dr. Scudder confidently recommends it as a safe and valuable remedy—and he trusts that his reputation and experience as an Oculist, will weigh against the gross impositions which are daily practised on the public by advertisements of different kinds of Eye Water, many of which are unsafe to use.

General Agricultural & Horticultural Establishment.

COMPRISING a Seed and Implement Store, a General Agricultural Agency, and the Office of the AMERICAN FARMER, at No. 16, S. Calvert St. Baltimore; in connex on with a Stock and Experimental Farm, Garden and Nursery, in the vicinity.

The subscriber, proprietor of the above named establishment, respectfully informs farmers, gardners, and the public generally, and dealers particularly, that he is prepared to execute orders in any or all of its departments; and he solicits those who feel interested in his plan to furnish him with their address, (free of expense to him) on receipt of which he will forward to them an extra number of this paper the American Farmer, containing a full description of his establishment, and a priced catalogue of Seeds, &c. for sale. In every village in the Union a quantity large or small of CHOICE GARDEN SEEDS, would find a ready and profitable sale, and the advertiser has prepared his Seed Store especially with a view to supply dealers on very liberal terms, for cash or acceptance in Baltimore, with first rate seeds, prepared and labelled, put up in boxes expressly for country dealers. He ventures to affirm, that for those who desire any of the articles comprised in his extensive assortment, there is not in the United States a more eligible place than this to apply for them, as it is a repository in which are concentrated, or may be procured in short notice, from all parts of our country (and not a few from remote parts of the earth) a vast variety, many of which are very rare and valuable of seeds, plants, trees, roots, vines, domestic animals, books, implements, and last, though not least, a constant fund of timely and important information on almost every subject interesting to a cultivator of the soil. This last is imparted weekly to subscribers for a small annual contribution, through the columns of the American Farmer, in which are indicated also, by an advertisement and otherwise, the supplies of choice commodities, both animal and vegetable, as they are received at the establishment. The subscriber is agent also for the principal nurseries and gardens in the Union;—and for several celebrated breeders of fine cattle, sheep, and other domestic animals—also for the United Society of Shakers, at New Lebanon, N. Y. a full assortment of whose celebrated garden seeds, fresh and genuine, may at all times be had from him wholesale and retail, on the best terms Address

A SPLENDID ASSORTMENT OF SADDLERY.
Easton Oct, 16

A New, Cheap, and Popular Periodical,

ENTITLED THE SELECT CIRCULATING LIBRARY.
Containing equal to Fifty Volumes for five Dollars

PROSPECTUS.

IN presenting to the public a periodical entirely new in its character, it will be expected that the publisher should describe his plan, and the objects he hopes to accomplish.

There is growing up in the United States a numerous population, with literary tastes, who are scattered over a large space, and who, distant from the localities whence books and literary information emanate, feel themselves at a great loss for that mental food which education has fitted them to enjoy. Books are cheap in our principal cities, but in the interior they cannot be procured as soon as published, nor without considerable expense. To supply this desideratum is the design of the present undertaking, the chief object of which, emphatically is, to make good reading cheaper, and to put it in a form that will bring it to every man's door

Books cannot be sent by mail, while "The Select Circulating Library" may be received at the most distant post office in the Union in from fifteen to twenty five days after it is published, at the trifling expense of two and a half cents; or in other words, before a book could be bound in Philadelphia, our subscribers in Ohio or Vermont may be perusing it in their parlours.

To elucidate the advantages of "The Select Circulating Library" such as we propose, it is only necessary to compare it to some other publications. Take the Waverly novels for example; the Chronicles of the Cannongate occupy two volumes, which are sold at $1.25 to $1.50. The whole would be readily contained in three numbers of this periodical, at an expense of thirty-seven cents, postage included! So that more than three times the quantity of literary matter can be supplied for the same money by adopting the newspaper form.—But we consider transmission by mail, and the early receipt of a new book, as a most distinguishing feature of the publication. Distant subscribers will be placed on a footing with those nearer at hand, and will be supplied at their own homes with equal to about Fifty Volumes of the common London novel size for Five Dollars. This may not take fifty-two weeks to accomplish, for though not longer than one week will elapse between the issuing of each number, yet when there is a press of very interesting matter, or when two or more numbers are required to contain a whole work, the proprietor will feel himself at liberty to publish at shorter intervals—fifty-two numbers being the equivalent for five dollars.

Arrangements have been made to receive from London an early copy of every new book printed either in that mart of talent, or in Edinburgh, together with the periodical literature of Great Britain. From the former we shall select the best Novels, Memoirs, Tales, Travels, Sketches, Biography, &c. and publish them with as much rapidity and accuracy as an extensive printing office will admit. From the latter, such literary intelligence will occasionally be culled, as will prove interesting and entertaining to the lover of knowledge, and science, literature, and novelty. Good standard novels, and other works, now out of print, may also occasionally be re-produced in our columns.

The publisher confidently assures the heads of families, that they need have no dread of introducing the "Select Circulating Library" into their domestic circle, as the gentleman who has undertaken the editorial duties, to literary tastes and habits, adds a due sense of the responsibility he assumes in catering for an extended and moral community, and of the consequences, detrimental or otherwise, that will follow the dissemination of obnoxious or wholesome mental aliment. His situation and engagements affords him peculiar advantages and facilities for the selection of books. These, with the additional channels created by agencies at London, Liverpool, and Edinburgh, warrant the proprietor in guaranteeing a faithful execution of the literary department.

It would be supererogatory to dilate on the general advantages & conveniences which such a publication presents to people of literary pursuits wherever located, but more particularly to those who reside in retired situations—they are so obvious that the first glance cannot fail to flash conviction of its eligibility.

TERMS.—"The Select Circulating Library" will be printed weekly on a double medium sheet of fine paper, in octavo form, with three columns on a page, and mailed with great care so as to carry safely to the most distant post office.

It will be printed and finished with the same care and accuracy as book work. The whole fifty two numbers will form a volume, well worth preservation, of 832 pages, equal in quantity to 1200 pages, or three volumes, of Ree's Cyclopædia.—Each volume will be accompanied with a Title-page and Index.

The price is Five Dollars for fifty-two numbers of sixteen pages each,—a price at which it cannot be afforded unless extensively patronised.—☞Payment at all times in advance.

Agents who procure five subscribers, shall have a receipt in full by remitting the publisher $20 00, and a proportionate compensation for a larger number. This arrangement is made to increase the circulation to an extent which will make it an object to pay agents liberally.—Clubs of five individuals may thus procure the work for $4 00, by uniting in their remittances.

Subscribers living near agents, may pay their subscriptions to them; those otherwise situated may remit the amount to the subscriber at his expense. Our arrangements are all made for the fulfilment of our part of the contract.

Subscribers' names should be immediately forwarded, in order that the publisher may know how many to print of the future numbers.

Editors of newspapers who give the above three or more conspicuous insertions, will be entitled to an exchange of 52 Numbers.

MAGISTRATE'S GUIDE.

LATROBE'S JUSTICES' PRACTICE including the DUTIES OF A CONSTABLE; with a collection of forms for CONVEYANCING—FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

PROSPECTUS
Of a New Paper to be issued
ON SATURDAY, (at noon) IN EACH WEEK,
CALLED THE GUARDIAN
AND TEMPERANCE INTELLIGENCER,
UNDER THE EDITORIAL CHARGE OF FRANCIS HARTHORN HAVIDGE, TO BE DEVOTED TO THE ADVANCEMENT OF SOUND MORALS, THE ARTS AND SCIENCES, POLITE LITERATURE, &c. &c.

LONG established custom requires, that the commencement of every new periodical publication shall be ushered to the world by PROSPECTUS, setting forth in due form, the subjects of which it will treat, and the principles by which its conductors intend to be governed. In obedience to this custom, we now present ourselves to the reading public, and ask of them such patronage as their indulgent sense of our merits may assign to us, and no more. As it is much more easy to promise, than to perform, we shall confine ourselves to a glance at the objects we have chiefly in view, believing it to be the wiser course not to excite over-great expectations, lest any failure upon our part to satisfy them, may draw upon us the ridicule which uniformly attends arrogant pretensions; leaving it to the public to decide, whether we shall have succeeded in our aim or not.

As "The Guardian" will have been established under the immediate auspices of some of the most distinguished advocates of TEMPERANCE, wide a view to the advancement of that great cause, so essential to the permanence of our republican institutions, and to domestic peace and individual prosperity, the PRIMARY object of the paper will be to extend the influence of its salutary principles. In order to attain this desirable end, it is our wish to make "THE GUARDIAN" the medium of circulation for every description of information relative to this most interesting topic, and for this purpose to allot a due portion of each number to communications, or essays on the subject, coming from any quarter where good wishes to the cause may give rise to them; to notices of all meetings held by the friends of the system; to the proceedings of societies throughout the country, and such statistical articles as may be collected, shewing the advancement of the cause.

In pursuing this course, the editor is fully aware that a paper devoted to one subject, however excellent, must become tiresome, and limited in its circulation; he therefore proposes to carry out the plan of a first rate family paper, in addition to the above, which, by the variety, taste, and sound sense exhibited in its contents, selected from the best literary sources, and mingling gay with the serious, the useful with the pleasant, will render it acceptable to every reader whose taste is not vitiated by the grossest self-abandonment. In order to render this paper valuable as a medium of news, domestic and foreign, so far as a weekly publication can be, summaries of passing events, at home and abroad, will be given, with notes of all new publications of importance, and such descriptions of fashions and amusements as may be harmless, and acceptable to the scholar or man of leisure.

The object of "THE GUARDIAN" will be, to refine the taste, enlighten the understanding, and elevate the morals of its readers, to the last of which especial attention will be paid. Believing that knowledge and virtue will always go hand in hand, and that in proportion as the lives of men are virtuous, will be their increased love of information and ability to enjoy the rich and ever varying stores of knowledge, which human intellect is constantly eliciting from the workings of nature and of art, and so vice versa, that as our fund of information is enlarged, will our capacity for the exquisite enjoyments that spring from a pure and elevated standard of morals, be expanded, the editor will direct any ability he may possess, to the advancement of the one and the other.

Having thus far hinted at what the editor intends to do, it may be proper for him to say what he will not do. He will not admit, under any plea whatever, SECTARIAN RELIGION, or PARTISAN POLITICS. He will not admit, knowingly, any thing of a personal character, or calculated to deepen the blush on the cheek of modesty, nor will he permit himself to be dictated to, as to what is advisable, and what is not, but will, so long as he is accountable for the contents of "THE GUARDIAN," accept or reject, according to his own pleasure.

THE GUARDIAN & TEMPERANCE INTELLIGENCER, will be published every Saturday, on paper of the best quality, a large size sheet, and with the best type, in folio form; and in order to bring it within the most moderate pecuniary ability, at the small price of $2 per annum, payable in advance, or $3 if paid at the end of the year.

All persons obtaining and forwarding the subscriptions of ten subscribers will be entitled to a copy gratis.—Orders to be addressed, postage paid, to John Duer, Dsq. who is authorized to receive the same.

The publication will be commenced as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers shall have been obtained.
