IN CHANCERY.

December 31, 1832.
The object of the bill filed in this case, is to obtain a Decree for the sale of the Real Estate of John Mitchell, and of John Mitchell, deceased, for the payment of his debts.
The bill states that the said John Mitchell has departed this life, seised of Real Estate, lying in Caroline County, leaving Elizabeth Mitchell his widow, and the following children to wit: Kittara, who has intermarried with Samuel Neal, Sarah Robinson, Ezekiel Mitchell, James R. Mitchell, Elizabeth Mitchell, Mary Mitchell, Ann Mitchell, and George Mitchell, his heirs at law. That the said John Mitchell at the time of his death, was indebted to the complainant, and that letters of Admistration on his Estate have been granted to Doctor William Jackson, and that the Personal Estate of said John Mitchell is insufficient for the payment of his debts. The bill also states that the defendants, Elizabeth Mitchell, widow of John Mitchell, Samuel Neal and Kittara his wife, Ezekiel Mitchell, James R. Mitchell, Elizabeth Mitchell, Mary Mitchell, Ann Mitchell, and George Mitchell, reside out of the State of Maryland.
It is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once in each of three successive weeks in some newspaper, before the 10th day of February next, give notice to the absent defendants of the substance and object of the Bill, that they may be warned to appear in this Court in person or by a solicitor, on or before the 31st day of May next, to show cause, if any they have, why a Decree should not pass prayed.

Dr. SCUDDER'S CELEBRATED EYE WATER.

For inflammation and weakness of the Eyes.

The great advantages of this infallible remedy, places it as a general appendage to every family, and a constant medicament to the traveller. This Eye Water is prepared with the greatest care, and has never been known to fail in effecting a speedy and safe Restoration of the diseased organs. It is useless to attach any certificates by way of praise or recommendation, the reputation and immense sales that has attended Dr. Scudder's Eye Water, being the fairest proof of its utility and beneficial tendency. It has been the means of preserving sight to many of the aged parent, from the helpless infant to the aged parent. Numerous letters have been receiving flattering remarks relative to this Eye Water—and the cures effected by it, have been set forth as Wonderful beyond precedent.
Dr. Scudder confidently recommends it as a safe and valuable remedy—and he trusts that his reputation and experience as an Oculist, will weigh against the gross impositions which are daily practised on the public by advertisements of different kinds of Eye Water, many of which are unsafe to use.

PROSPECTUS OF THE EXAMINER,

A Daily and Tri Weekly Evening Newspaper.
To be published in the city of PHILADELPHIA.

WHAT idolatry is to the Church, man-worship is to the State. The fatal rock upon which the liberties of the American People are to be dashed to pieces, is the abandonment of principles in a blind devotion to men. Within the last twenty years, all parties have been guilty of this political sin; and, unless its onward course be arrested at this awful crisis of our country's fate, all will be lost.

The discontinuance, on the last day of December, of "the Banner of the Constitution," published weekly for three years, under the editorial charge of the subscriber, has left the cause of State Rights without a paper at the North, through which the great political question to be made, and, unless it be discussed unimpeded by personal or party considerations. The unexampled unanimity which has recently been proclaimed throughout the Middle and Northern States in favor of a consolidated government, has cast a deep gloom over the minds of the consistent few who remain true to the Republican Faith of '93; and any attempt to effect, in that region, such a revolution as was accomplished by bringing in to power Mr. Jefferson and his principles, Desperate, however, as it may appear, the attempt ought to be made, and if a liberal support be extended to this enterprise, it SHALL BE MADE.

The friends of Liberty and the Union, as guaranteed by the Constitution, in this quarter, are not disposed to abandon, without a further struggle, the glorious inheritance transmitted to them by their fathers; but being few in number, and surrounded by a population who-ly adverse to their views, they can only maintain a press by the co-operation of those who are more deeply interested in themselves in the preservation of the RESERVED RIGHTS of MAN.

Should the reduction of the Tariff take place during the present session of Congress, it is highly probable that an effort will be made at the North, during the next few years, to restore it. With this view, all the calamities which may be the result from overtrading, or-ver-manufacturing, over-speculating, over-banking, and all other causes united, will be ascribed to the downfall of the American System; and the friends of Free Trade will find it no easy task to stand up against this probable reaction, in demonstrating to their fellow citizens the true causes of their suffering.

With the view of inviting the co-operation above referred to, it has been resolved to propose the establishment of a Daily and Tri-weekly paper, in the City of Philadelphia, to be entitled "The Examiner," upon the following plan:

1. The EXAMINER, will be a regular newspaper, and will be printed in newspaper form, of the well known size of the National Gazette. It will contain the usual supply of foreign and domestic news, commercial intelligence, and literary and miscellaneous selections expected in a daily newspaper. It will give copious extracts from the Proceedings of Congress, and will carefully preserve, all the State papers and public documents of an important nature that may appear.

Political Economy, in all its branches, including Pauper Systems, Poor Laws, Civil and Criminal Jurisprudence, Banking, Currency, and all other matters of public concern, shall be freely discussed.
The affairs of South America will be frequently brought into view; and in reference to Brazil, there will be copious extracts from a manuscript journal kept by the Editor, during a residence of near five years in that country.
2. In its political department the Examiner will advocate the REPUBLICAN DOCTRINES of '98, as set forth in the Virginia Resolutions and Legislative Report against the ALLEN and SEDDON Laws; and maintained in "the times that tried men's souls," by Jefferson, Madison, M'Kean, and the orthodox and distinguished champions of the Republican party.

3. It will consequently advocate, to use the language of Jefferson,
"A wise and frugal Government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned."
"Liberty of the Tongue—Liberty of the Press—Liberty of the Conscience—Liberty of the Hand."

"Freedom of Industry, as sacred as freedom of speech or of the press."
"Economy in the public expense, that labor may be lightly burdened."
"The support of the State Governments in all their rights as the most competent administrations of our domestic concerns."
"The preservation of the General Government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of our peace at home, and safety abroad."
"Peace, commerce, and honest friendship with all nations."
"Taxes—as many as are necessary, and no more; as long as necessary, and no longer;" and lastly,
"Equality of rights and duties, of benefits and burdens, as the basis of the Union."

4. It will oppose monopolies, special privileges, and sinecures, of every description, as interfering with the equality of rights upon which our institutions are founded, and will oppose, upon the ground of unconstitutionality, as well as of inexpediency, the establishment, by the Federal Government, of any National or Treasury Bank.

5. It will also oppose all wasteful expenditures, by the Federal Government, of the public money for Internal Improvements, upon the principle, that to the State Governments belongs the sole power to construct roads and canals, by their own means, or by the incorporation of companies. It will oppose all appropriations for objects not clearly within the delegated powers of Congress, and all ursurpations of authority by any branch of the Federal Government.

6. It will also be opposed, and in an especial manner, to man-worship, the bane of Republicanism, and it will expose corruption and derivation of principle in public servants, to whatever party they may profess to belong. This government will do, in a mode which shall not degrade the press, and upon no occasion will the columns of the Examiner be the vehicle of curiosity or vulgar personal abuse.

7. The paper will be commenced as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers shall have been obtained to secure its permanent establishment, of which due notice will be given; and should this not take place before the first of May next, it will be abandoned.

TERMS.
Price of the daily paper, per annum, $8 " of the tri-weekly paper which will comprise the whole of the contents of the daily, except advertisements each of which will appear at least once, 5 Payable on the receipt of the 1st No. without defalcation, and annually thereafter, in ad- vance.

The postage of all letters must be paid, except of letters enclosing five dollars and upwards, or the names of five responsible subscribers.—The transmission of money by mail to be at the risk of the publisher.

A notice of discontinuance must always be accompanied by the payment of arrearages, and no other will be deemed valid, unless at the option of the publisher.
Advertisements will be inserted at the usual rates, and annual advertising customers will be accommodated on reasonable terms.
Communications are to be addressed to the subscriber, at the S. E. corner of Walnut and Third Streets, opposite the New Exchange, where subscriptions will be received.

customers, and the public generally, and dealers particularly, that he is prepared to execute ordorses those who feel interested in his plan to as-them) on receipt of which he will forward to them an extra number of his paper the AMERIC-AN FARMER, containing a full description of his establishment, and a priced catalogue of Seeds, &c. for sale. In every village in the Union a quantity large or small of CHOICE GARDEN SEEDS, would find a ready and profitable sale, and the advertiser has prepared his Seed Catalogues, with a view to supply dealers on very liberal terms, for cash or acceptance in Baltimore, with first rate seeds, prepared and labelled, put up in boxes expressly for country dealers. He ventures to affirm, that for those who desire any of the articles comprised in his extensive establishment, there is not in the United States a more eligible place than this to apply for them, as it is a repository in which are concentrated, or may be procured in short order, from all parts of our country (and not a few from remote parts of the earth) a vast variety, many of which are very rare and valuable of seeds, plants, trees, roots, vines, domestic animals, books, implements, and last, but not least, a constant fund of timely and important information on almost every subject interesting to a cultivator of the soil. This last is imparted weekly to subscribers for a small annual contribution, through the columns of the AMERICAN FARMER, in which are indicated, also, by an advertisement and otherwise, the supplies of choice commodities, both animal and vegetable, as they are received at the establishment. The subscriber is agent also for the principal nurseries and gardens in the Union;—and for several celebrated breeders of fine cattle, sheep, and other domestic animals;—also for the United States Office

PROSPECTUS

Of a New Paper to be issued ON SATURDAY, (at noon) IN EACH WEEK, CALLED

THE GUARDIAN
AND TEMPERANCE INTELLIGENCER.
UNDER THE EDITORIAL CHARGE OF FRANCIS HARTHORN DAVIDGE, TO BE DEVOTED TO THE ADVANCEMENT OF SOUND MORALS, THE ARTS AND SCIENCES, POLITE LIT-ERATURE, &c. &c.

LONG established custom requires, that the commencement of every new periodical publication shall be ushered to the world by PROSPECTUS, setting forth in due form, the subjects of which it will treat, and the principles by which its conductors intend to be governed in the reading public, we now present. In obedience to this custom, and in accordance with the wishes of our friends, we submit our plan to the reading public, and ask of our patrons as their indulgent sense of our merits may assign to us, and no more. As it is much more easy to promise, than to perform, we shall confine ourselves to a glance at the objects we have chiefly in view, believing it to be the duty of every feature upon our part to assist them, may draw upon us the ridicule which unfavourably attends pretensions; leaving it to the public to decide, whether we shall have succeeded in our aim or not.

As "The Guardian" will have been established under the immediate auspices of some of the most distinguished advocates of TEMPERANCE, we view to the advancement of that great cause, as essential to the permanence of our republican institutions, and to domestic peace and individual prosperity, the PRIMARY object of the paper will be to extend the influence of this principle. In order to attain this desirable end, our wish to make "THE GUAR-DIAN" the medium of circulation for every description of information relative to this most interesting topic, and for this purpose to blot a due portion of each number to communications on the subject, coming from any quarter where good wishes to the cause may give rise to them; notices of all meetings held by the friends of the system; to the proceedings of societies throughout the country; and such extracurricular articles as may be collected, showing the advancement of the cause.

In pursuing this course, the editor is fully aware that a paper devoted to one subject, however excellent, must become tiresome, and limited in its circulation; he therefore proposes to carry out the plan of a first rate family paper, in addition to the above, which, by the variety, taste, and sound sense exhibited in its contents, selected from the best literary sources, and mingling gay with the serious, the useful with the pleasant, will render it acceptable to every reader whose taste is not vitiated by the grossest affectation. In order to render this paper valuable as a medium of news, domestic and foreign, as far as a weekly publication can be, summaries of passing events, at home and abroad, will be given, with notes of all new publications of importance, and such descriptions of fashions and amusements as may be harmless, and acceptable to the scholar or man of leisure.

The object of "THE GUARDIAN" will be, to refine the taste, enlighten the understanding, and elevate the morals of its readers, to the last of which especial attention will be paid. Believing that knowledge and virtue will always go hand in hand, and that in proportion as the lines of men are virtuous, will be their intelligence and accuracy in the exercise of their responsibilities; and that in proportion as the level of information and ability to enjoy the rich and ever varying stores of knowledge, which human intellect is constantly eliciting from the workings of nature and art, and so vice versa, that as our fund of information is enlarged, will our capacity for the enjoyment of it be enlarged, and our springs from a pure and elevated standard of morals, be expanded, the editor will direct any ability he may possess, to the advancement of the one and the other.

Having thus far hinted at what the editor intends to do, it may be proper for him to say what he will not do. He will not admit, under any plea whatever, SECTARIAN RELIGION, or PARTISAN POLITICS. He will not admit, knowingly, anything of a personal character, or calculated to deprive the blush on the cheek of modesty, nor will he permit himself to be dictated to, as to what is advisable, and what is not, but will, so long as he is accountable for the contents of "THE GUARDIAN," accept or reject, according to his own pleasure.

"THE GUARDIAN & TEMPERANCE," IN TELLIGENCE, will be published every Saturday, on paper of the best quality, a large size sheet, and with the best type, in folio form, and in order to bring it within the most moderate pecuniary ability, at the small price of $2 per annum, payable in advance, or $3 if paid at the end of the year.
All persons obtaining and forwarding the subscriptions of ten subscribers will be entitled to a copy gratis.—Orders to be addressed, postage paid, to John Duer, Esq. who is authorized to receive the same.
The publication will be commenced as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers shall have been obtained.

The undersigned respectfully recommend this paper to the patronage of the friends of TEM-PERANCE in particular, throughout the State, and solicit their active exertions in obtaining subscribers.
STEVENS ARCHER,
President State Temperance Society,
N. BICE,
President Balt. Temperance Society.
Subscription lists will be left at the Stores of Messrs. Cushing & Son, Howard, near Market Street, and at Litch, Calvert street; Joseph N. Toy, Market at.

Papers well affected to the cause will contribute in favour by publishing the above, and may be assured of a return, should occasion offer.

adaptation of soil to the culture of sugar, and cot-

A New, Cheap, and Popular Pe- riodical, ENTITLED THE SELECT CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

Containing equal to Fifty Volumes for five Dollars.

Presenting to the public a periodical entirely new in its character, it will be expected that the publisher should describe his plan, and the objects he hopes to accomplish.
There is growing up in the United States a numerous population, with literary tastes, who are scattered over a large space, and who, distant from the localities whence books and literary information emanate, feel themselves at a great distance from that mental food which education has prepared for them. Books are cheap in our principal cities, but in the interior they cannot be procured as soon as published, nor without considerable expense. To supply this desideratum, it is the design of the present undertaking, the chief object of which emphatically is, to make good reading cheap, and to put it in a form that will bring it to every man's door.

Books cannot be sent by mail, while "The Select Circulating Library" may be received at the most distant part of the Union, from the price of twenty five cents; after it is published, at the trifling expense of two and a half cent, or other words, before a book could be bound in Philadelphia, our subscribers in Ohio or Vermont may be perusing it in their parlours.

To elucidate the advantages of "The Select Circulating Library" such a desideratum, it is only necessary to compare it to some other publications. Take the Waverly novels for example, the Chronicles of the Communage occupy two volumes, which are sold at $1.25 to $1.50.
The whole would be readily contained in three numbers of this periodical, at an expense of thirty-seven cents, postage included. So that more than three times the quantity of literary matter can be supplied for the same money by adopting the new paper form.—But we consider transmission by mail, and the early receipt of a new book, as a most distinguishing feature of the publication. Distant subscribers will be placed on a footing with those nearer at hand
