

PROSPECTUS OF THE EXAMINER, A Daily and Tri-Weekly Evening Newspaper, To be published in the City of PHILADELPHIA.

WHAT Industry is to the Church, man or woman, is to the State. The latter rock upon which the liberties of the American People are to be dashed to pieces, is the abandonment of principles in a blind devotion to men. Within the last twenty years, all parties have been guilty of this political sin; and unless its onward course be arrested at this awful crisis of our country's fate, all will be lost.

The discontinuance, on the last day of December, of "The Banner of the Constitution," published weekly for three years, under the editorial charge of the subscriber, has left the cause of Liberty without a paper at the North, through which the great political questions which now agitate the land, can be discussed unobscured by personal or party considerations. The unexampled unanimity with which the Middle and Northern States have recently been proclaimed in favor of a consolidated government, has cast a deep gloom over the mind of the consistent few who remain true to the Republican faith of '93; and an attempt to effect, in that region, such a revolution as was accomplished by bringing into power Mr. Jefferson and his principles, would seem to be hopeless as it appears, the attempt is made, however, as it may appear, the attempt is made, and it shall be made.

Should the reduction of the Tariff take place during the present session of Congress, it is highly probable that an effort will be made at the North, during the next few years, to restore it. With this view, all the calamities which may be the result from overtrading, over-manufacturing, over-speculating, over-banking, and all other causes united, will be ascribed to the downfall of the American System; and the friends of Free Trade will find no easy task to stand up against this probable reaction, in demonstrating to their fellow citizens the true causes of their suffering.

With the view of inviting the co-operation above referred to, it has been resolved to propose the establishment of a Daily and Tri-Weekly paper, in the City of Philadelphia, to be entitled "The Examiner," upon the following plan.

1. THE EXAMINER, will be a regular newspaper, and will be printed in newspaper form, of the well known size of the National Gazette. It will contain the usual supply of foreign and domestic news, commercial intelligence, and literary and miscellaneous selections expected in a daily newspaper. It will give copious extracts from the Proceedings of Congress, and will carefully reserve all the State papers and public documents of an important nature that may appear.

Political Economy, in all its branches, including Pauper Systems, Poor Laws, Civil and Criminal Jurisprudence, Banking, Currency, and all other matters of public concern, shall be freely discussed.

The affairs of South America will be frequently brought into view; and in reference to Brazil, there will be copious extracts from a manuscript journal kept by the Editor, during a residence of near five years in that country.

2. In its political department the Examiner will advocate the REPUBLICAN DOCTRINES of '93, as set forth in the Virginia Resolutions and Legislative Report against the Alien and Sedition Laws; and maintained in "the times theoretical" of '93, by Jefferson, Madison, M'Kean, and the orthodox and distinguished champions of the Republican party.

It will consequently advocate, to use the language of Jefferson, "A wise and frugal Government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned."

"Liberty of the Tongue—Liberty of the Press—Liberty of the Conscience—Liberty of the Hand."

"Freedom of Industry, as sacred as freedom of speech or of the press, and as the right of the citizen to the public expense, that labor may be lightly burdened."

"The support of the State Governments in all their rights as the most competent administrations of our domestic concerns."

"The preservation of the General Government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of our peace at home, and safety abroad."

"Peace, commerce, and honest friendship with all nations."

"Taxes as many as are necessary, and no more; as long as necessary, and no longer; and lightly."

"Equality of rights and duties, of benefits and burdens, as the basis of the Union."

4. It will oppose monopolies, special privileges, and immunities, of every description, as inconsistent with the equality of rights upon which our institutions are founded, and will oppose, upon the ground of expediency, as well as of principle, the establishment, by the Federal Government, of any National or Territorial Bank.

5. It will also oppose all wasteful expenditures, by the Federal Government, of the public money for internal improvements, upon the principle, that to the State Governments belongs the sole power to construct roads and canals, by their own means, or by the incorporation of companies. It will oppose all appropriations for objects not clearly within the delegated powers of Congress, and all expenditures not authorized by any branch of the Federal Government.

6. It will also be opposed, and in an especial manner, to man-stealing, the base of Republicanism, and it will oppose corruption and deflection of principle in public servants, to what ever party they may profess to belong. This, however, it will do, in a mode which shall not degrade the press, and will appear in the columns of the Examiner, as the vehicle of severity or vulgar personal abuse.

7. The paper will be commenced as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers shall have been obtained to secure its permanent establishment, of which due notice will be given; and should the need arise, before the first of May next, it will be abandoned.

TERMS. Price of the daily paper, per annum, $8. Of the tri-weekly paper which will comprise the whole of the contents of the daily, except advertisements, one dollar, which will appear at least once, 50 cents.

Payable on the receipt of the 1st No. without defalcation, and annually thereafter, in advance. The postage of all letters, must be paid, except of letters enclosing five dollars and upwards, or the names of five responsible subscribers.—The transmission of money by mail to be at the risk of the publisher.

A notice of discontinuance must always be accompanied by the payment of arrearages, and no other will be deemed valid, unless at the option of the publisher. Advertisements will be inserted at the usual rates, and annual advertising customers will be accommodated on reasonable terms. Communications are to be addressed to the subscriber, at the S. E. corner of the New Exchange, Third Street, opposite the New Exchange, where subscriptions will be received. CONDY RAGUET, Philadelphia, January 1, 1833.—12

Dr. SCUDDER'S CELEBRATED EYE WATER. For inflammation and weakness of the Eye. The great advantages of this infallible remedy, places it as a general appendage to every family, and a constant vade mecum to the traveller. This Eye Water is prepared with the greatest care, and has never been known to fail in effecting a speedy and safe restoration of the diseased organs. It is useless to attach any certificates by way of praise or commendation; the reputation and immense sale that has attended Dr. Scudder's Eye Water, being the fairest proof of its utility and beneficial tendency. It has been the means of preserving sight to many of the afflicted, from the helpless infant to the aged parent. Numerous letters have been received by Dr. S. within these few years, containing flattering remarks relative to this Eye Water—and the cures effected by it, have been set forth as Wonderful beyond precedent. Dr. Scudder confidently recommends it as a safe and valuable remedy—and he trusts that his reputation and experience as an Oculist, will weigh against the gross impositions which are daily practised on the public by advertisements of different kinds of Eye Water, many of which are unsafe to use. Prepared by Dr. JOHN SCUDDER, Oculist and Inserter of Artificial Human Eyes, City of New York, and to be had wholesale and retail of Doct. S. W. SPENCER, Sole Agent for Dr. S. in Easton, &c. dec 22

MARYLANDS CAROLINE COUNTY ORPHANS' COURT, 29th day of January, Anno Domini 1833. ON application of Solomon R. Cahall, Executor of Noah Cahall, late of Caroline county, deceased.—It is ordered, that he give notice by public sale, to be held on the 29th day of January, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and thirty-three, to exhibit their claims against the said deceased's estate, and that he cause the same to be published once in each week for the space of three successive weeks, in one of the newspapers printed in Easton. In testimony that the foregoing is truly copied from the minutes of proceedings of the Orphans' Court of Caroline county, in Maryland, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of my office, affixed, this 29th day of January, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and thirty-three. WM. A. FORD, Register of Wills for Caroline county.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN. That the subscriber of Caroline county hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of Caroline county, in Maryland, letters Testamentary on the personal estate of Noah Cahall, late of Caroline county, deceased; and all persons having claims against the said deceased's estate, are hereby warned to exhibit the same with the proper vouchers thereon to the subscriber, on or before the fifth day of August next, or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate.—Given under my hand this twenty ninth day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and thirty-three. SOLOMON R. CAHALL, Exr. of Noah Cahall, deceased. Feb. 2 '33

General Agricultural & Horticultural Establishment. COMPRISING a Seed and Implement Store, a General Agricultural Agency, and the Office of the AMERICAN FARMER, at No. 16 S. Calvert St. Baltimore, in connection with a Stock and Experimental Farm, Garden and Nursery, in Caroline county. The subscriber, proprietor of the above named establishment, respectfully informs farmers, gardeners, and the public generally, and dealers, particularly, that he is prepared to execute orders in any or all of his departments; and he solicits those who feel interested in his plan to furnish him with their address, (free of expense to them) an extra number of his paper the American Farmer, containing a full description of the establishment, and a price catalogue of Seeds, &c. for sale. In every village in the Union, quantity large or small, of CHOICE GARDEN SEEDS, would find a ready and profitable sale; and the advertiser has prepared his Seed Store, especially with a view to supply the Eastern Shore, with first rate seeds, prepared and labelled, put up in boxes expressly for country dealers. He ventures to affirm, that for those who desire any of the articles comprised in his extensive catalogue, there is not in the United States a more eligible place than this for their purchase, as it is a repository in which are concentrated, in a secure and sheltered manner, from all parts of the world, and not only from remote parts of the earth, a vast variety, many of which are very rare and valuable of seeds, plants, trees, roots, vines, domestic animals, books, implements, &c. though, in fact, a constant fund of timely and important information on almost every subject interesting to a cultivator of the soil. This list is imparted weekly to subscribers for a small annual contribution, through the columns of the American Farmer, in which are indicated also, by an advertisement, and otherwise, the supplies of commodities, both animal and vegetable, of which he received at the establishment. The subscriber is also the principal nurseryman in the Eastern Shore, and has a large number of breeders of fine cattle, sheep, and other domestic animals—also for the United States, of whose celebrated garden seeds, fruiting plants, &c. he has had from him, who made and retail, on the best terms. Address—L. HAYNE HITCHCOCK, Baltimore, Md. dec 11

PROSPECTUS OF A New Paper to be issued ON SATURDAY, (at no. 11) IN EACH WEEK CALLED THE GUARDIAN AND TEMPERANCE INTELLIGENCER. UNDER THE EDITORIAL CHARGE OF FRANCIS HARTFORD DAVIDGE, TO BE DEVOTED TO THE ADVANCEMENT OF SOUND MORALS, THE ARTS AND SCIENCES, POLITICAL LITERATURE, &c. &c. LONG established custom required, that the commencement of every new periodical publication should be ushered to the world by PROSPECTUS, setting forth in due form, the subjects of which it will treat, and the principles by which its conductors intend to be governed. In obedience to this custom, we now present to the public, and ask of them such patronage as their intelligent sense of our merits may assign to us, and no more. As it is a much more easy to promise, than to perform, we shall confine ourselves to a glance at the objects we have in view, believing it to be the duty of the public to decide, whether we shall have succeeded in our aim or not. As "The Guardian" will have been established under the immediate auspices of some of the most distinguished advocates of TEMPERANCE, we view to the advancement of that great public institution, and to the promotion of individual prosperity, the PRIMARY object of the paper will be to extend the influence of its salutary principles. In order to attain this desirable end, it is our wish to make "THE GUARDIAN" the medium of circulation for every description of information relating to this most interesting topic, and for this purpose to allot a due portion of each number to communications or essays on the subject, coming from any quarter where good wishes to the cause may give rise to them; notices of all meetings held by the friends of the system, and the proceedings of societies throughout the country, and such statistical articles as may be collected, showing the advancement of the cause. In pursuing this course, the editor is fully aware that a paper devoted to one subject, however excellent, must become tiresome, and limited in its circulation; he therefore proposes to carry out the plan of a first rate family paper, in addition to the above, which, by the variety, taste, and sound sense exhibited in its contents, selected from the best literary sources, and mingled with the serious, the useful with the pleasant, will render it acceptable to every reader whose taste is not vitiated by the gross self-abandonment. In order to render this paper valuable as a medium of news, domestic and foreign, so far as a weekly publication can be, articles of passing events, at home and abroad, will be given, with notes of all new publications of importance, and such descriptions of fashions and amusements as may be harmless, and acceptable to the scholar or man of leisure. The object of "THE GUARDIAN" will be, to refine the taste, enlighten the understanding, and elevate the morals of its readers, to the best of which special attention will be paid. Believing that knowledge and virtue will always go hand in hand, and that in proportion as the love of man is virtuous, will be their increase of love of information and ability to enjoy the rich and ever varying stores of knowledge, which human intellect is constantly eliciting from the workings of nature and of art, and so vice versa, that our fund of information is enlarged, will be the more ready to acquire enjoyments deriving from a pure and elevated standard of morals, be expanded, the editor will direct any ability he may possess, to the advancement of the one and the other. Having thus far hinted at what the editor intends to do, it may be proper for him to say what he will not do. He will not aim, under any plea whatever, SECTARIAN RELIGION, or PARTISAN POLITICS. He will not admit, knowingly, any thing of a personal character, or calculated to deepen the blush on the cheek of modesty, nor will he permit himself to be dictated to, as to what is advisable, and what is not, but will, so long as "THE GUARDIAN" accepts or rejects, according to his own private judgment, the contents of "THE GUARDIAN" will be published every Saturday, on paper of the best quality, a large size sheet, and with the best type, in four pages, and in order to bring it within the most moderate pecuniary ability, at the small price of $2 per annum, payable in advance, or $3 if paid at the end of the year. A persons obtaining and forwarding the subscriptions of ten subscribers will be entitled to a copy gratis.—Orders to be addressed, postage paid, to John Duer, Esq. who is authorized to receive the same. The publication will be commenced as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers shall have been obtained. The undersigned respectfully recommends this paper to the patronage of the friends of TEMPERANCE in particular, throughout the State, and solicits their active exertions in obtaining subscribers. STEVENSON ARCHER, President State Temperance Society. N. B. HUGHES, President Balt. Temperance Society. Subscriptions will be left at the Stores of Messrs. Cushing & Son, Howard, near Market street; Gault & Lotie, Calvert street; Joseph N. Toy, Market street. Papers will be delivered to the cause will be assured of a return, should occasion offer. dec 15

COLLECTOR'S NOTICE. THE Subscriber being desirous of collecting the Tax of Talbot county due for the present year; in the course of this fall, respectfully requests all persons holding assessable property in the county, to call on him at his office in Easton, where he will attend every Tuesday for the reception of the same. It is hoped that those who cannot make it convenient to call on him, will be prepared for a call from him or his deputies in their respective districts, with WILLIAM MAGLEY, Collector of Talbot county Taxes. 16

A New, Cheap, and Popular Periodical, ENTITLED THE SELECT CIRCULATING LIBRARY. Containing equal to Fifty Volumes for five Dollars. PROSPECTUS. IN presenting to the public a periodical entirely new in its character, it will be expected that the publisher should describe his plan, and the objects he hopes to accomplish. There is growing up in the United States a numerous population, who are scattered over a large space, and who, from the localities whence books and literary information emanate, feel themselves at a great loss for mental food which education has furnished them to enjoy. Books are cheap in our principal cities, but the criterion they cannot be procured as soon as published, nor without considerable expense. To supply this desideratum is the design of the present undertaking, the chief object of which emphatically is, to make good reading cheap, and to put it in a form that will bring it to every man's door. Books cannot be sent by mail, while "The Select Circulating Library" may be received at the most distant post office in the Union in from fifteen to twenty five days after it is published, at one flying expense of two and a half cents, or in other words, before a book could be bound in Philadelphia, our subscribers in Ohio or Vermont may be perusing it in their parlours. To elucidate the advantages of "The Select Circulating Library" such as we propose, it is only necessary to compare it to some other publication. Take the Waverley novels for example; the Chronicles of the Conyngham occupy two volumes, which are sold at $1.25 to $1.50. The whole would be readily obtained in three numbers of this periodical, at an expense of thirty-seven cents, postage included! So that more than three times the quantity of books could be supplied for the same money by adopting the new paper form.—But we consider transmission by mail, and the early receipt of a new book, as a most distinguishing feature of the publication. Dates subscribers will be placed on a footing of knowledge and science, and will be supplied at their own homes with a new volume of the common London novel size for five Dollars. This may not take fifty-two weeks to accomplish for though not longer than one week, it will elapse between the issuing of each number, yet when there is a press of very interesting matter, or when two or more numbers are required to contain a whole work, the proprietor will feel himself at liberty to publish at shorter intervals.—Thirty two numbers being the equivalent for five Dollars. Arrangements have been made to receive from London an early copy of every new book printed either in that mart of talent, or in Edinburgh, together with the periodical literature of Great Britain. From the former we shall select the most interesting and valuable works, such as Biography, &c. and publish them with much rapidity and accuracy as any extensive printing office will admit. From the latter, such literary intelligence will occasionally be culled, as will prove interesting and entertaining to the lovers of knowledge and science. Literature, and novelty of Grand standard novels, and other works, now out of print, may also occasionally be reproduced in our columns. The publisher confidently assures the heads of families, who have not been made to receive the "Select Circulating Library" into their homes, that they need have no dread of introducing it into their families, as the proprietor is guaranteeing a faithful execution of the literary department. It would be supererogatory to dilate on the general advantages & conveniences which such a publication would afford to people of literary pursuits wherever located, but more especially to those who reside in retired situations—they are so obvious that the first glance cannot fail to establish the value of its eligibility. Terms.—"The Select Circulating Library" will be published weekly on a double number sheet of paper in octavo form, with three columns on a page, and mailed with great care so as to carry safely to the most distant post office. It will be printed and finished with the same care and accuracy as book work. The whole will be sent to the subscribers at the rate of $2 per year, or $3 per year, equal in quantity to 1200 pages, or three volumes, of Rees's Cyclopaedia.—Each volume will be accompanied with a full page and index. The price is Five Dollars for fifty-two numbers of six pages each—price at which it cannot be afforded unless extensively patronized.—Payment at all times in advance. Agents who procure five subscribers, shall have a receipt in full by remitting the publisher $30 00, and a proportionate compensation for a larger number. Every arrangement is made to increase the circulation to an extent which will make it an object to pay agents liberally.—Cubs of five individuals may thus procure the work for $5 00 by uniting in their remittance. Subscribers living near agents, may pay their subscriptions to them; those otherwise situated may remit the amount to the subscriber at his expense. Our arrangements are all made for the fulfillment of our part of the contract. Subscribers names should be immediately forwarded, in order that the publisher may know how many to print of the future numbers. Editors of newspapers who give the above the best and most conspicuous insertions, will be entitled to an exchange of 50 Numbers. ADAM WALDIE, Carpenter Street, Near Seventh, under the Apprentices' Library, back of the Arcade, where subscriptions will be gratefully received. Philadelphia, October, 1832. Subscriptions received at this Office. dec 11

NOTICE. AT the request of some gentlemen on the Eastern Shore, (the breeders of the thorough bred horse) "MARYLAND ECLIPSE" will stand the ensuing season, at Easton and Centreville. Competent Judges have pronounced this, inferior to few, if any horses in this country. He has fine size and great beauty, particularly however of his stock, size and performance will be hereafter given at full length. Jan 22
