Dr. SCUDDER'S
CELEBRATED EYE WATER.
For inflammation and weakness of the Eyes.
THE great advantages of this infallible remedy, places it as a general appendage to every family, and a constant ode-macum to the traveller. This Eye Water is prepared with the greatest care, and has never been known to fail in effecting a speedy and safe Restoration of the diseased organs. It is useful to attach any certificate by way of recommendation, the reputation and immen-sate sale that has attended Dr. Scudder's Eye Water, being the fairest proof of its utility and beneficial tendency. It has been the means of preserving sight to many of the afflicted. Numerous letters have been received by Dr. S. within these few years, containing flattering remarks relative to this Eye Water—and the cures effected by it, have been set forth as Wonderful beyond precedent.
Dr. Scudder confidently recommends it as a safe and valuable remedy—and he trusts that his reputation and experience as an Oculist, will daily gain against the gross impositions which are daily practised on the public by advertisements of different kinds of Eye Water, many of which are unsafe to use.
Prepared by
Dr. JOHN SCUDDER,
Oculist and Inserter of Artificial Human Eyes, City of New York; and to be had wholesale and retail of Doct. S. W. SPENCER, Sole Agent for Dr. S. in Easton, Sc.

MARYLAND:

CAROLINE COUNTY ORPHANS' COURT, 29th day of January, Anno Domini 1833.
ON application of Solomon R. Cahall, Executor of Noah Cahall, late of Caroline county, deceased.—It is ordered, that he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased's estate, and that he cause the same to be published once in each week for the space of three successive weeks, in one of the newspapers printed in Easton.
In testimony that the foregoing is truly copied from the minutes of proceedings of the Orphans' Court, of the county aforesaid, I have hereto set my hand and the seal of my office affixed, this 29th day of January, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and thirty-three.
Test,
WM. A. FORD, Register of Wills for Caroline county.

IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE ABOVE ORDER, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the subscriber of Caroline county hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of Caroline county, in Maryland, letters Testametary on the personal estate of Noah Cahall, late of Caroline county, deceased; all persons having claims against the said deceased's estate, are hereby warned to exhibit the same with the proper vouchers thereof to the subscriber, on or before the fifth day of August next, or they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate.—Given under my hand this twenty ninth day of January, A. D.

General Agricultural & Horticultural Establishment.
COMPREHENSIVE a Seed and Implement Store, for General Agricultural Agency, and the Office of the AMERICAN FARMER, No. 103, Calvert St. Baltimore in connexion with a Stock and Experimental Farm, Garden and Nursery, in the vicinity.
The subscriber, proprietor of the above mentioned establishment, respectfully informs farmers, gardeners, and the public generally, and especially, that he is prepared to execute orders in any or all of the departments, and he acquiesces in the opinion of those who are interested in his business, (free of expense) on receipt of which he will forward to them an entire number of his paper, the American Farmer, containing a full description of his establishment, and a priced catalogue of Seeds, &c. for sale. In every village in the Union quantity large or small of CHOICE GARDEN SEEDS, would find a ready and profitable sale, and the advertiser has prepared his Seed Store specially with a view to supply dealers on very liberal terms, for cash or acceptance in Baltimore, with first rate seeds, prepared and labelled, put up in boxes expressly for country dealers. He ventures to affirm, that for the benefit of the articles comprised in his catalogue, he has no equal establishment in the United States, a more eligible place than this to apply for them, as it is a repository in which they are concentrated, or may be procured in abundant quantities from all parts of the country (and not a few from remote parts of the earth) a vast variety, from which are selected the very rare and valuable seeds, plants, trees, roots, and other articles of merit, implements, and, though not new, a constant fund of timely and important information on almost every subject interesting a cultivator of the soil. This list is imparted weekly to subscribers for a small annual contribution, through the columns of the American Farmer, in which are indicated items by an advertisement, and otherwise, the supplies of choice commodities, both animal and vegetable, of the best quality, and of the most approved and fashionable patterns.—The subscriber's gardens in the Union, and for several celebrated breeders of fine cattle, sheep, and other domestic animals—also for the United States of Farmers, at New Lebanon, N. Y. a full assortment of whose celebrated garden seeds, fresh and genuine, may at all times be had from him wholesale and retail, on the best terms. Address

PROSPECTUS

Of a New Paper to be issued ON SATURDAY, (at noon) IN EACH WEEK CALLED
THE GUARDIAN
AND TEMPERANCE INTELLIGENCER.
UNDER THE EDITORIAL CHARGE OF FRANCIS HARTHORN DAVIES, TO BE DEVOTED TO THE ADVANCEMENT OF SOUND MORALS, THE ARTS AND SCIENCES, POLITE LIT-ERATURE, &c. &c.

LONG established custom requires, that the commencement of every new periodical publication shall be ushered in the world by PROSPECTUS, setting forth in due form, the subjects of which it will treat, and the principles by which its conductors intend to be governed. In obedience to this custom, we now present our lives to the reading public, and ask of them such patronage as their indulgent sense of our merits may assign to us, and no more. As it is much more easy to promise, than to perform, we shall confine ourselves to a glance at the objects we have chiefly in view, believing it to be the wisest course not to excite over-great expectations, lest any failure upon our part to satisfy them, may draw upon us the ridicule which unfortunately attends arrogant pretensions, leaving it to the public to decide, whether we shall have succeeded in our aim or not.

As "The Guardian" will have been established under the immediate auspices of some of the most distinguished advocates of TEMPERANCE, and a view to the advancement of that great cause so essential to the permanence of our republican institutions, and to domestic peace and individual prosperity, the PHIMARY object of the paper will be to extend the influence of its salutary principles. In order to attain this desirable end, it is our wish to make "THE GUAR-DIAN" the medium of circulation for every description of information relative to this interesting topic, and for this purpose to select a due portion of each number to communications, or essays on the subject, coming from any quarter where good wishes to the cause may give rise to them; but notices of all meetings held by the friends of the system; to the proceedings of societies throughout the country, and such statistical articles as may be collected, showing the advancement of the cause.

In pursuing this course, the editor is fully aware that a paper devoted to one subject, however excellent, must become tiresome, and limited in its circulation; he therefore proposes to carry out the plan of a first rate family paper, in addition to the above, which, by the variety, interest, and sound sense exhibited in its contents, selected from the best literary sources, and mingled together with the serious, the useful, and the pleasant, will render it acceptable to every reader whose taste is not vitiated by the grossest absurdity. In order to render this paper valuable as a medium of news, domestic and foreign, so far as a weekly publication can be, summaries of passing events, and of the progress of the war, will be given, with notes of all publications of importance, and such descriptions of fashions and amusements as may be harmless, and acceptable to the scholar or man of leisure.

The object of "THE GUARDIAN" will be to refine the taste, enlighten the understanding, and elevate the morals of the readers to the level of which especial attention will be paid. Believing that knowledge and virtue will always go hand in hand, and that in proportion as the level of men is virtuous, will be their increased love of information and ability to enjoy the advantages of it, we will endeavor to furnish such and every variety of subjects, as will enlarge the human intellect by constantly eliciting from the works of nature and of art, and so vice versa, as our fund of information is enlarged, will our capacity for the exquisite enjoyment that spring from a pure and elevated standard of morals, be expanded, the editor will direct every effort he may possess, to the advancement of the cause of the paper.

Having thus far hinted at what the editor intends to do, it may be proper for him to say what he will not do. He will not admit of any part whatever, SECTARIAN HELLION OR PARISIAN FOLLIES. He will not admit, knowingly, any thing of a personal character, or calculated to deep in the blush on the cheek of moderns, nor will he permit himself to be dictated to, or to write in a servile manner, or to be influenced by the contents of "THE GUARDIAN," except of course, according to his own pleasure.

"THE GUARDIAN & TEMPERANCE IN-TELLIGENCER" will be published every Saturday, on paper of the best quality, a large and elegant type, and with the most beautiful and in order to bring it within the reach of the pecuniary ability, at the small price of 50 cents per annum, payable in advance, or 25 cents at the end of the year.

All persons obtaining and forwarding the subscription of ten dollars, or more, and sending a copy gratis.—Orders to be addressed to paid, to John Davie, Esq. who is authorized to receive the same.
The publication will be commenced as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers shall have been obtained.

The undersigned respectfully recommend the paper to the patronage of the friends of the cause of TEMPERANCE in particular, throughout the State, and solicit their active exertions in obtaining subscribers.
STEVENSON ARCHER,
President State Temperance Society.
President Balt. Temperance Society.
Subscription lists will be left at the Store of Messrs. Coaling & Son, Howard, near Market street; Gale & Latell, Calvert street; Joseph N. Toy, Market st.

Persons who feel affected to the cause will confer a favor by publishing the above, and may be assured of a return, should occasion offer.

THE Subscriber being desirous of collecting the Tax of Talbot county due for the present year in the course of this fall, respectfully requests all persons holding assessable property in the county, to call on him at his office in Easton, where he will attend every Tuesday for the reception of the same. It is hoped that those who cannot make it convenient to call on him, will be prepared for a call from him or his deputies in their respective districts.
PHILIP MACKAY,
Collector of Talbot county Taxes.

A New, Cheap, and Popular Periodical,
ENTITLED THE SELECT CIRCULATING LIBRARY.
Containing equal to Fifty Volumes for five Dollars
PROSPECTUS.

IN presenting to the public a periodical of a new and original character, it will be expected that the publisher should describe his plan, and the objects he hopes to accomplish.
There is growing up in the United States a new class of readers, who, dissatisfied with the scattered over a large space books and literary information emanate, feel the necessity of a great for that mental food which education has fitted them to enjoy. Books are cheap in our principle, but the inferiority of the material, and the cost of the present undertaking, the chief object of which emphatically is, to make good reading cheaper, and to put it in a form that will bring it to every man's door.

Books cannot be sent by mail, while "The Select Circulating Library" may be received at the most distant post office in the Union in from 10 to twenty five days after it is published, at the trifling expense of a two and a half cents in other words, before a book could be bound in the newspapers, or sent to the printer, the cost of the whole would be nearly equal to the cost of the present undertaking, the chief
bring it to every man's door.

To elucidate the advantages of "The Select Circulating Library" such as we propose, it is only necessary to compare it to some other publications. Take the Waverley novels for example. The Chronicles of the Canongate occupy two volumes, and are sold at $1.25 to $1.50.
The whole would be nearly equal to the cost of the present undertaking, the chief
bring it to every man's door.

Arrangements have been made to receive from London an early copy of every new book printed either in Great Britain, or in Edinburgh, together with the most interesting literature of Great Britain. From the former we shall select the best Novels, Memoirs, Tales, Travels, Sketches, Biography, &c. and publish them with as much rapidity and accuracy as an extensive printing office, and the most judicious selection of literary intelligences will be collected, and will prove interesting and entertaining to the lover of knowledge, and science, literature, and novelty. Good standard novels, and other works, now out of print, may also occasionally be reproduced in our edition.

The publisher confidently assures the heads of families, that they need have no dread of introducing the "Select Circulating Library" into their domestic circle, as the gentleman who has undertaken the editorial duties, to literary taste and his aids, add a due sense of the responsibility of the matter, and will be particularly careful to guard against any extended and irregular circulation, that will follow the dissemination of opinions or wholesale moral sentiment. His situation and engagements afford him peculiar advantages and facilities for the selection of books. These, with the additional aid of a select committee of London, Liverpool, and Edinburgh, warrant the proprietor in guaranteeing a faithful execution of the literary department.

It would be inappropriate to dilate on the
