NO PRINTERS—E. WHITE & WM. HAGER respectfully inform the printers of the United States, to whom they have been individually known as LITTEK FOUNDERS, that they have now formed a copartnership in said business, and hope from their united skill and extensive experience, to be able to give full satisfaction to all who may favour them with their orders. The introduction of machinery, in place of that tedious and unhealthy process of casting type by hand, long a desideratum by the European and American Founders, was by American ingenuity, and a heavy expenditure of time and money on the part of our copartners, first successfully accomplished. Extensive use of the machine cast letter, has fully tested and established its superiority in every particular, over that cast by the old process.
The letter foundry business will hereafter be carried on by the before named, under the firm of White, Hager & Co. Their specimen exhibits a complete series from Diamond to 14 line Pica; the book and no type being in the most modern and light style.
White, Hager & Co. are agents for the sale of the Smith and Rust Printing Presses, which they can furnish to their customers at the manufacturers' prices.
Cases, Cases, Composing Sticks, Ink, and every article used in the Printing Business, kept for sale, and furnished on short notice.—Old Type taken in exchange for new at nine cents per pound.
N. B. Newspaper proprietors who give the above three insertions, will be entitled to five dollars in any articles as they may select from our specimen.

General Agricultural & Horticultural Establishment.

COMPRISING a Seed and Implement Store, a General Agricultural Agency, and the Office of the AMERICAN FARMER, at No. 16, S. Calvert St. Baltimore, in connexion with a Stock and Experimental Farm, Garden and Nursery, in the vicinity
The subscriber, proprietor of the above named establishment, respectfully informs farmers, gardeners, and the public generally, and dealers particularly, that he is prepared to execute orders in any or all of his departments, and he trusts that those who feel interested in his plan to furnish him with their orders, (free of expense to them) on receipt of which he will forward to them an extra number of his paper the American Farmer, containing a full description of his establishment, and a priced catalogue of Seeds, &c. for sale. In every village in the Union a quantity large or small of CHOICE GARDEN SEEDS, would find a ready and profitable sale, and the advertiser has prepared his Seed Store, specially with a view to supply dealers on very liberal terms, for cash or acceptance in Baltimore, with first rate seeds, prepared and labeled, put up in boxes expressly for country dealers. He ventures to affirm, that for the purpose of doing any of the articles mentioned in his extensive establishment, there is not in the United States a more eligible place than this to apply for them, as it is a repository to which we concentrate, or may be procured in short notes, from parts far and near (and no fewer than 1000 sorts of the earth) a vast variety, many of which are very rare, and valuable of seeds, plants, trees, vines, domestic animals, books, implements, and last, though not least, a constant fund of timely and important information on almost every subject interesting to a cultivator of the soil. This list is imparted weekly to subscribers for a small annual contribution, through the columns of the American Farmer, in which are indicated also, by an advertisement and otherwise, the supplies of choice commodities, both animal and vegetable, as they are received at the establishment. The subscriber is also the principal nurseryman of gardeners in the Union—and for several celebrated breeders of fine cattle, sheep, and other domestic animals—so for the United States of shakers, at New Lebanon, N. Y. a full assortment of the celebrated garden seeds, fresh and genuine, may at all times be had from him wholesale and retail, on the best terms.—Address

A New, Cheap, and Popular Periodical,

ENTITLED THE SELECT CIRCULATING LIBRARY
Containing equal to Fifty Volumes for five Dollars.

PROSPECTUS.
In presenting to the public a periodical entirely new in character, it will be expected that the publisher should describe his plan, and the objects he hopes to accomplish. There is growing up in the United States a numerous population, with literary tastes, who are scattered over a large space, and who, distant from the localities whence books and literary information emanate, feel themselves at a great loss for that mental food which education has a right to enjoy. Books are cheap in our printing cities, but in the interior they cannot be procured as soon as published, nor without considerable expense. To supply this desideratum is the design of the present undertaking, the chief object of which emphatically is, to make good things cheaper, and to put it in a form that will be useful to every man's door.
Books cannot be sent by mail, while "The Select Circulating Library" may be received at the most distant post office in the Union, from fifteen to twenty five days after it is published, at the trifling expense of ten and a half cents; or, in other words, before a book could be bought in Philadelphia, our subscribers in Ohio or Vermont may be procuring it in their parlours.
To elucidate the advantages of "The Select Circulating Library" such as we propose, it is only necessary to compare it to some other publication. Take the Waverly novels for example; the "Chronicles of the Connamore" twenty volumes, which are sold at $1.25 to $1.50 the whole would be readily contained in three numbers of this periodical, at an expense of thirty-seven cents, postage included. So that more than three times the quantity of literary matter can be supplied for the same money by "The Select Circulating Library" than by any other publication. The books are published at shorter intervals—fifty-two numbers being the equivalent to five dollars.
Arrangements have been made to receive from London an early copy of every new book brought together in that mart of talent, or in Edinburgh, together with the periodical literature of Great Britain. From the former we shall select the best Novels, Memoirs, Tales, Travels, Sketches, Biography, &c. and publish them with as much rapidity and accuracy as an extensive printing office will admit. From the latter, the literary intelligence will occasionally be collected, as all prove of interest and entertaining to the lover of knowledge, and science, literature, and novelty. Good standard novels, and other works now out of print, may also occasionally be reproduced in our columns.
The publisher confidently assures the heads of families, that they need have no dread of intruding the wretched "Connamore" into their domestic circles, as the periodical has undertaken the editorial duties, to literary taste and habits, adds a due sense of the responsibility he assumes in catering for an extended and general community, and of the consequences, detrimental or otherwise, that will follow the dissemination of obnoxious and pernicious sentiment. His situation and engagements afford him peculiar advantages and facilities for the selection of books. These, with the additional plan and credit by agencies at London, Liverpool, and Edinburgh, warrant the proprietor in announcing a faithful execution of the literary department.

It would be supererogatory to dilate on the general advantages & conveniences which such a publication presents to people of literary pursuits, where ever located, but more particularly to those who reside in retired situations—they are so obvious that the first glance cannot fail to fasten conviction of its eligibility.
Terms.—"The Select Circulating Library" will be printed weekly on a double medium sheet of fine paper in octavo form, with three columns on a page, and mailed with great care so as to carry safely to the most distant post office.
It will be printed and finished with the same care and accuracy as book work. The subscription numbers will form a volume, well worth preservation, of 832 pages, equal in quantity to 1400 pages, or three volumes, of the Cyclopaedia.—Each volume will be accompanied with a title page and index.
The price is Five Dollars for fifty-two numbers of sixteen pages each,—a price at which it cannot be afforded unless extensively patronized.
Payment as usual in advance.
Agents who procure five subscribers, shall have a receipt in full by remitting the publisher $25 00, and a proportionate compensation for a larger number. This arrangement is made to increase the circulation to an extent which will make it an object to pay agents liberally.—
Club of five individuals may thus procure the work for $5 00 by uniting in their remittances.
Subscribers living near agents, may pay their subscriptions to them, those otherwise situated may remit the amount to the subscriber at his expense. Our arrangements are all made for the fulfillment of our part of the contract.
Subscribers' names should be immediately forwarded, in order that the publisher may know how many to print of the future numbers.
* Editors of newspapers, who give the above three or more conspicuous insertions, will be entitled to an exchange of 50 Numbers.
ADAM WALDIE,
Carpenter Street, Near Seventh, under the Apple Tree Tavern, back of the Arcade, where subscriptions will be gratefully received.
Philadelphia, October, 1832.
