JOHN MECONEKIN, CABINET MAKER.

RESPECTFULLY informs his customers and the public, that he has just received his SPRING STOCK OF MATERIALS in his line, which he is prepared to manufacture at the shortest notice, into furniture of all descriptions, which he will warrant will be as good, and will be sold as low, as they can be purchased in Baltimore, or elsewhere. He invites the public to call at his Ware Room, where he has now on hand some MAHOGANY SIDEBOARDS, BUREAUX, TABLES, BEDSTEADS, &c. which he will dispose of very low. He earnestly requests those of his friends whose accounts have been of long standing, to call without delay and settle, as they must know it is impossible for him to carry on his business to advantage, without, at least, a little Cash. J. M. would also acquaint the Public that he has in his employ a first rate Turner, who will execute any business in his line with neatness and despatch. Old Chairs repaired at the shortest notice. Two apprentices of good moral habits from 14 to 16 years of age, will be taken to learn the above business. Feb 26 (G)

PRINTERS—E. WHITE & WM. HAGER

respectfully inform the printers of the United States, to whom they have been individually known as LETTER FOUNDERS, that they have now formed a copartnership in said business, and hope from their united skill and extensive experience, to be able to give full satisfaction to all who may favour them with their orders. Their production of machinery, in place of that tedious and unhealthy process of casting type by hand, long a desideratum by the European and American Founders, was by American ingenuity, and a heavy expenditure of time and money on the part of our senior partner, first successfully accomplished. Extensive use of the machine cast letter, has fully tested and established its superiority, in every particular, over that cast by the old process. The letter foundry business will hereafter be carried on by the before named, under the firm of White, Hager & Co. Their specimens exhibit a complete series from Diamond to 14 lines Pica; the book and news type being in the most modern and light style. White, Hager & Co. are agents for the sale of the Smith and Rust Printing Presses, which they can furnish to their customers at the manufacturers' prices. Chases, Cases, Composing Sticks, Ink, and every article used in the Printing Business, kept for sale, and furnished on short notice.—Old Type taken in exchange for new at nine cents per pound. N. B. Newspaper proprietors who give the above three insertions, will be entitled to five dollars in such articles as they may select from our specimen. E. WHITE, WM. HAGER, New York, Jan. 3—Feb 9

BALTIMORE TYPE FOUNDRY.

THE Proprietors of the Baltimore Type Foundry, respectfully inform the Printers in the United States, that they are now prepared to furnish them with a great variety of Letters, suited to Book, News and Job Work, at prices the same as they can be obtained at from other Foundries—consisting principally of the following sizes, viz. Nonpareil, Minion, Brevier, Bourgeois, Long Primer, Pica, 4 Lines Pica, Six Lines Pica ornamented, Eight Lines Pica Antique, Eight Lines Pica Fluted, Eight Lines Pica Oak Leaf, Five Lines Pica, Seven Lines Pica, Eight Lines Pica ornamented, &c. &c. Together with Leads, Brass Rule, Dashes—Plain and Ornamented, a great variety of Flowers, Cuts—suitable for Books, Newspapers, and Handbills, Card Borders, &c. &c. Orders for any of the above, as also for Presses, Cases, Chases, Composing Sticks, Galleys, Ink, Varnish, or any thing required in the completion of an office, will be executed on terms as favorable as at any other establishment of a similar kind in the U. States. Old Type will be taken in exchange at nine cents per pound, delivered at the Foundry. Mr. EDWARD STARR, who has been long engaged in carrying on the business, is superintending the Baltimore Foundry, and from his well known experience, will be enabled to attend to the orders of Printers in such a manner, for promptness and accuracy, as to ensure satisfaction. F. LUCAS, Jr. Agent of the Baltimore Type Foundry. Feb 2

A CARD.

WOOLFOLK wishes to inform the owners of negroes, in Maryland, Virginia, and North Carolina, that he is not dead, as has been artfully represented by his opponents, but that he still lives, to give them CASH and the highest prices for their Negroes. Persons having Negroes to dispose of, will please give him a chance, by addressing him at Baltimore, and where immediate attention will be paid to their wishes. N. B. All papers that have copied my former Advertisement, will copy the above, and discontinue the others. Oct 9

100 NEGROES WANTED.

I WISH to purchase ONE HUNDRED NEGROES, of both sexes, from 12 to 25 years of age. Persons having slaves to dispose of, will please give me a call, as I am determined at all times to give higher cash prices than any other purchaser in this market. All communications directed to me, in Easton will be promptly attended to. I can at all times be found at Mr. Lowe's Hotel in Easton. THOMAS M. JONES. Easton, February 2, 1833. W

Easton and Baltimore Packet.

THE subscriber, grateful for the numerous and continued favours of a generous public, begs leave to inform them, generally, and his friends and customers in particular, that his

PACKET SCHOONER

WRIGHTSON, Thomas P. Townsend, Master, being now in complete order, will commence her regular trips between Easton and Baltimore on WEDNESDAY NEXT, 13th in the morning, returning Easton, at 9 o'clock in the morning. Returning, she will leave Baltimore on the following THURSDAY, at the same hour, and will continue sailing on the above days, regularly, throughout the season. Strict attention will, as heretofore, be given to all orders. Freight intended for this packet, will be at all times received at the subscriber's granary at Easton Point. Passengers can be comfortably accommodated. The public's obedient servant, SAMUEL H. BENNY. N. B. Persons indebted to the subscriber, are earnestly requested to call and settle, without fail, on or before the first of March. Those who have had my boat bags in possession since last fall, will please return them at once, as I wish to put them in order for public benefit. If they are not returned by the last of this month, they will be charged to those who have them, at the rate of 75 cents each. They are marked either E. Auld, or S. H. Benny. S. H. B. Easton, February 9, 1833.

$50 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the Subscriber on Thursday 27th December, 1832, a negro boy named ENNALLS, but has since changed his name to HARRISON, about 18 years old, five feet four or five inches high, of somewhat yellow complexion, and rather a rolling walk—his eye lashes curl very much. Ennalls went by water out of Choptank this year. The above reward will be given to any person who will apprehend said negro so that I get him again. HENRIETTA RICHARDSON, Near New Market, Dorchester County, Md. Feb 26

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that he has opened a boarding house in the house formerly occupied by the late Thomas Perrin Smith, on Washington street, opposite the Union Tavern, where he is prepared to receive gentlemen by the week, month or year, on reasonable terms. Being determined to devote particular attention to this business, he hopes to receive the patronage of the public. CALEB BROWN, N. B. Parents or guardians of children from the country, who may wish to place them at school in town, can have them accommodated with boarding by the subscriber, and the strictest attention paid to their morals and comfort. General Agricultural & Horticultural Establishment.

COMPELLING a Seed and Implement Store, a General Agricultural Agency, and the Office of the AMERICAN FARMER, at No. 16, S. Calver St., Baltimore, in connexion with a Stock and Experimental Farm, Garden and Nursery, in the vicinity. The subscriber, proprietor of the above named establishment, respectfully informs farmers, gardeners, and the public generally, and desires particularly, that he is prepared to execute orders, in any or all of his departments; and he solicits those who are interested in his plan to furnish him with their address, (free of expense to them) on receipt of which he will forward to them an extra number of his paper the American Farmer, containing a full description of his establishment, and a priced catalogue of Seeds, &c. put up in boxes expressly for country dealers. He ventures to affirm, that for those who desire any of the articles comprised in his extensive establishment, there is not in the United States a more eligible place than this to apply for them, as it is a repository in which are concentrated, or may be procured in short notice, from all parts of the country (and not a few from remote parts of the earth) a vast variety, many of which are very rare and valuable of seeds, plants, trees, roots, vines, domestic animals, books, implements, and last, though not least, a constant fund of timely and important information on almost every subject interesting to a cultivator of the soil. This last is imparted weekly to subscribers for a small annual contribution, through the columns of the American Farmer, in which are indicated also, by advertisement and otherwise, the supplies of choice commodities, both animal and vegetable, as they are received at the establishment. The subscriber is agent also for the principal nurseries and gardeners in the Union;—and for several celebrated breeders of fine cattle, sheep, and other domestic animals;—also for the United Society of Shakers, at New Lebanon, N. Y. a full assortment of whose celebrated garden seeds, fresh and genuine, may at all times be had from him wholesale and retail, on the best terms. Address I IRVINE HITCHCOCK, Baltimore, Md. dec 11
