being now in complete order, will commence her regular trips between Easton and Baltimore on WEDNESDAY NEXT, 13th inst., leaving Easton Point, at 9 o'clock in the morning. Returning, she will leave Baltimore on the following SATURDAY, at the same hour, and will continue sailing on the above days, regularly, throughout the season. Strict attention will, as heretofore, be given to all orders. Freight intended for this packet, will be at all times received at the subscriber's grocery at Easton Point. Passengers can be comfortably accommodated.

The public's obedient servant, SAMUEL H. BENNY.

N. B. The death of Capt. Thos. P. Townsend, who was so advantageously known as packet master for the last two years, has made it necessary to appoint another for this schooner. The selection I have made, it is hoped will give perfect satisfaction to the numerous patrons of this line. In the ability and integrity of Mr. Parrott, I have the most unlimited confidence; and I think it will only be necessary for my friends to continue their liberal support, to enable Capt. Parrott to prove this confidence is not misplaced. Easton, March 9th, 1833. S. H. B.

TO THE PRINTERS OF THE UNITED STATES.

GENTLEMEN:—Most respectfully, I present to you my grateful acknowledgments for the extensive patronage which I have received from you during the past ten years in which I have been engaged in type founding—and at the same time inform that I have relinquished the business in favor of Messrs. Lawrence Johnson, and George F. Smith, for whom I solicit a continuance of your favors. This I do with the more confidence, from a knowledge of their ability and disposition to render ample satisfaction to those who may please to encourage their establishment. One of the firms has been connected with the knowledge upwards of twenty years, and his knowledge of the business in all its details assures those who may purchase of its soundness, that they will be accommodated to their satisfaction. In future, orders for sorts, or additions to fonts, may be addressed to Johnson & Smith, or to the subscriber, and they will be promptly attended to. He begs leave to inform that he has on hand a considerable quantity of type, in fonts of various kinds and weights, which can be obtained on application either to Johnson & Smith, or to your obliged friend, RICHARD RONALDSON, Philadelphia, Feb. 18th, 1833.

TYPE FOUNDRY.

Having purchased of Mr. Richard Ronaldson, his long established and very extensive Type Foundry; the subscriber has formed a co-partnership for the purpose of founding and setting business; and for the convenience of his friends and patrons has removed their establishment to a more central part of the city.—As it is their intention to keep on hand a good assortment of the best type, and to make such additions and improvements as the taste of the trade and the wants of the country require, they flatter themselves that this establishment will merit a large share of patronage. They have now several fonts on hand, which can be furnished at a few hours notice, and are prepared to make fonts of all weights and sizes, from pearl to 22 lines pica, including a great variety of ornamental letter. Their assortment of cuts, dashes, brass rule, and other ornaments, will be found to be very extensive, of which specimens will be forwarded to printers as soon as they can be prepared. Printing presses of every description, printing ink of the most approved qualities, composing sticks, brass and common galleys, cases, imposing stones, paper, and press-boards, standing presses, together with a complete assortment of all articles used in a printing office, will be kept constantly on hand. Small fonts suitable for book binders, in great variety may be had when called for. Orders from all parts of the Union will be promptly and most carefully attended to, and particularly in supplying sorts for all fonts furnished by their predecessor, Binny & Ronaldson, and Richard Ronaldson.

TO PRINTERS.

RESPECTFULLY inform the printers of the United States, to whom they have been individually known as LETTER FOUNDRIES, that they have now formed a partnership in said business, and hope from their united skill and extensive experience, to be able to give full satisfaction to all who may favour them with their orders. The introduction of machinery, in place of that tedious and unhealthy process of casting type by hand, long a desideratum by the European and American Foundries, was by American ingenuity, and a heavy expenditure of time and money on the part of our senior partner, first successfully accomplished. Extensive use of the machine cast letter, has fully tested and established its superiority, in every particular, over that cast by the old process. The letter foundry business will hereafter be carried on by the before named, under the firm of White, Hager & Co. Their specimen exhibits a complete series from Diamond to 14 lines Pica; the book and news type being in the most modern and light style. White, Hager & Co. are agents for the sale of the Smith and Rust Printing Presses, which they can furnish to their customers at the manufacturers' prices. Chases, Cases, Composing Sticks, Ink, and every article used in the Printing Business, except type, are furnished on short notice.—Old Type taken in exchange for new at nine cents per pound. N. B. Newspaper proprietors who give the above three insertions, will be entitled to five dollars in such articles, as they may select from our specimen. E. WHITE, WM. HAGER. New York, Jan. 3—Feb 9
